Naik, late Duffadar of the West
Sub Court, Madras.

There is no house or country name either for me or my father.
But they used to call me also as 'Anuppanadi' Ramasamy Naik.

The date of my birth is only 1840 as entered in my service book.
That entry was made in the service book on 16th February 1877 & I have also signed it. That alone is correct.

I was employed in the late Snake Cause Court until 31st March 1879. That Court was abolished from 1st April 1879.
& I had been serving from that date in the West Sub Court which was newly established.

From,

A. S. Pinhey Esquire,

To,
The Accountant-General,

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. A. D. S.
134, dated the 15th instant calling for certain information regarding the gratuity application of Ramasamy Naik, late Duffadar of the Subordinate Court of Madras (West), I have the honor to state as follows:—

1— The applicant was retired from service on the 18th April last and the application for gratuity was received in this Court on the 16th ultimo during the annual recess. Hence the delay.

2. There is no house or country name of the applicant and of his father as stated in this Court's letter No. 326 dated 29th May last.

But

But the applicant in his affidavit (sent herewith) states that he is generally known by the name "Aruppanadi" Ramaswami Naik and his name has been so written in the application.

3. The entry under the head "Remarks as to Character and past conduct of the applicant" on the 3rd page of the application has been properly amended.

4. The year 1840 entered in the applicant's Service Register as the date of his birth is the correct date. The entry 1838 is also found entered in some of the office copies kept in the Subordinate Court of Madras (West-) of the annual returns on record in your office. This wrong entry seems to have been made by some clerical mistake in one year and the same entry seems to have been copied in the subsequent returns also. The entry in the Service Register has been made so far back as February 1877 and the applicant also states in his affidavit that 1840 is the correct date of his birth.

5. The entry of 31st March 1879 in the annual returns on record in your office, as the date of the applicant's transfer to the Subordinate Court of Madras (West-) is also a clerical mistake. He was employed in the late Small Cause Court until 31st March 1879 and that Court was abolished from 1st April 1879 and the West Sub Court was created in its place from the same date. Therefore the correct date of the applicant's beginning of service in the West Sub Court is 1st April 1879 and this is supported by the applicant's said affidavit.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most Obedt. Servant,

Aruppanadi
