Madras Soliv Office
19th June 1896

Superintendent of Soliv

On 3rd March a very serious riot was committed at Palayampatty village by a gang of Shanars from Koppalpur village who killed Pajidath and other infirm officers and others were pulled down and taken up as trophies into, from which they took the rioters and directed themselves with sticks at us (several rooms).

Another 3d informant to the rioting, no 998 had visited Palayampatty and was informed by the villagers that some of the Aruppukottah Shanars had been in the village and picked up a quarrel, that they had left the village in a very excited state, saying they would return to Aruppukottah and bring a mob of Shanars to attack the Shanars of Palayampatty. No 998 without taking the slightest notice of this information, told the villagers Munsif and Cavalry to follow him to Koppalpur village & his house of Bonil.

On arriving at this village he secured a house during his stay there he received information from Palayampatty that the riot was in full swing but instead of proceeding at once to suppress the riot, he made every excuse for delay and would not allow the Village Munsiff of basalgudi to leave to paulparam. After great delay, he arrived at the scene of crime, where he attempted to arrest any of the rioters enquire into the case but simply returned to his station, and to his daily report in which he failed to make ^{any} mention of the riot.

3rd On 4th morning the Sub Magistrate happened by chance to arrive at Aruppukottah, where he, for the first time, heard of the riot. He at once sent for no 995 and on asking him why he had not reported the case, he replied that it was late in the day for returning to the station, and that he did not mention it in his report of the 4th as he did not consider it was case of such serious importance as to be entered in that day's report without fail.

4th The Division Inspecter on receipt of a report from the Sub Magistrate at once proceeded to the scene of crime made enquiry but could not get the Aruppukottah rioters arrested as no 995 did not make the slightest endeavours to arrest them or assist him. Inspecter then applied for warrants and on receiving them it was with great difficulty and delay that no 995 arrested 10 persons who were subsequently charged and 8 were convicted.

5th no 995 admits having visited Palayamputti on the 3rd previous to the riot, also that on his way there he met some ten Aruppukottah Shanars who said they had been assaulted by the Palayamputti Shanars, also that he took the Village Munsiff and Cavalgans with him to search a house at Sopaulaparam but denies having been informed of the threatened riot. As for not arresting any of the rioters on going to the scene of crime, he says that they all ran away on seeing him and that since then they absconded.

6th From the conduct of no 995 during the enquiry into this crime, I am convinced that he knew a riot was to take place for which purpose he visited Palayamputti and took away the village munsiff and Cavalgans, his great delay in returning to the scene of crime, his failing to report the case at once to the Magistrate or mention it in his daily report, his great delay and unwillingness to arrest the defendants, clearly prove that he was siding with the Aruppukottah Shanars who have been at long enmity with the Palayamputti Shanars. The Magistrate in his calendar remarks that the conduct of no 995 is open to very grave suspicions and that had it not been for his (Magistrate's) assiduity going to Aruppukottah he doubts whether no 995 would have reported the case in his daily report of the 4th.
