The Accountant General,

Sir,

In reply to your no. $\frac{A.D.K.}{101}$, dated 28th May 96 I have the honor to forward an affidavit obtained from Mr. Lewis which will explain why he has been deprived of his permanent appointment. As the applicant resigned with a view to getting an acting appointment on the same establishment and got it in continuation of his previous service, and was subsequently given a permanent post on a salary equal to what he earned when holding the acting appointment, the period 5th December 1868 to 30th September 1870, may, I think, be treated as an interruption admissible for condonation under article 465(ii) of the Civil Service Regulations. If so, it is requested that this interruption in the applicant's service may be recommended for condonation, so that the applicant's qualifying service prior to 5th December 1868 may be reckoned for pension.
