1st class constable No: 322 Girasam of Lampet Station is charged with the following serious offence:—

On 10th February 1888 he was ordered to go to Yercaud of Salem to arrest the accused in case No 10 of Rampet Station he was given a filled up Railway warrant by his Station House officer and 2 blank forms for his return journey. He returned on 22nd without the prisoner who was independently arrested in Rampet. Subsequently attention is drawn by chief officer to corrections in the Railway warrants in Col. 1. a correctional form is made into 2 while in col. 4 only one form No 322 is shown as having travelled on detective duty. An enquiry being made it is found that 322 altered the heading of the Railway warrant which was originally given for the journey to Shenoy Hill Station to "Erode" - he went to Erode - where he has a brother and under cover of the altered Railway warrant. In his Special report of 22-2-88 he suppressed the fact of his having gone to Erode and represented that he

he had done wonderful work at Yercaud whereas as a matter of fact he went directly to Erode on his own private business. He did go to Yercaud on his return journey to show some work, but he undoubtedly did go to Erode on a falsified Railway warrant. In his explanation dated 24.2.88 he states that he alone went to Yercaud, and does not know how the correction came to be made in the Railway warrant.
In a subsequent explanation however dated 29.2.88 he states that constable 656 Moorogesan came with him to Erode. he admits having gone there to search for K.D. Thirumangadam whom he heard was there. He admits having altered the Railway warrant and says he did not inform his Station House officer that 656 Moorogesan had gone with him.

Now it is undoubtedly a fact that this constable together with constable 656 - who is dealt with in another minute went off under cover of an altered Railway warrant on a spree of their own. This man is deserving of severe punishment and it was contemplated to prosecute him under under Section 417 for having defrauded Government. Sanction for his prosecution was accorded by District Superintendent - but it was found that he took 656 Moorogesan with him and not a private person as was originally inferred. There is very ^{little} difference in the offence he has committed which is assuredly that of trying to defraud Government.

In his defence which was given at the personal hearing on the 12 April he lays all the blame on 656 Moorogesan who undoubtedly is to blame as much if not more. He begs very hard to get off, but I think very serious notice is deserving in this case. Had he had any honest intention he would on his return have reported to his Station House officer or that 656 Moorogesan had gone with him (as he says Moorogesan told him he was ordered to do so by his Head constable) in order to arrest Thirumangadam at Erode; the fact of his having hid in all his reports goes to show his dishonest intention, and I feel I have no other alternative but to recommend his

his dismissal from the force -

Order an appeal petition from late 1st class constable no 322 Durasami against punishment of dismissal.

1st class constable no 322 appeals against his dismissal.

He was dismissed for having altered a Railway warrant which had been filled up by his Station House officer and given to him with 2 other Blank warrants for his return journey the filled up warrant was issued to him for the purpose of proceeding to the Shimroy

Shimroy Hills Station for the purpose of arresting a man at Yercaud, starting from the Great Station. Here he appears to have met another constable no 656 and then both of them appears to have made up their minds to go to Erode on their own affairs. What 656's intention was, I can't say, but the appellant (no 322) appears to have been to go and pay a visit to his brother in Erode and so the Warrant already filled up, was altered from the Shimroy Hill Station to Erode and back.

I am afraid there is a great deal of this kind of fraud committed by constables and others in the force on the pretence of being on defective or other Special duty.

The constable (no 322) character is reported as good, taking into consideration his long service of 19 years and that he has already been made to pay the excess fares, I think that reduction from 1st to 3rd class with a sufficient punishment

Government some time back directed that consideration should be shown to men of long service
