No 147 4th grade Head Constable Hail Lemmer.

On evening of 17th November Salt Head Const brought an Albury case prisoner to Surathkal Stn. Watch Const 42 declined to take charge of him and went off to report to H.C. Const 147. but neither did he return nor any one else of the General Force appear at Stn till next morning. Head Const 147 declares he was absent enquiring into case 51 and only returned home about 90.m, he heard nothing about the prisoner & it being late, did not go on to Stn. His enquiries however in case 51 were only in and about Surathkal and when questioned by his Inspector, he gave discrepant accounts of his movements. There can be not doubt he heard of prisoner's arrival and kept away from Stn to evade charge of him during the night. Again Inspector examining the Head Const's note book found notes of 17th November were in the writer's handwriting. Head Const's explanation of this is that he he had taken the notes on loose paper and so had to get them copied into note-book.

Head Const is awarded 3 B. marks entailing reduction to 1st cl. Const for 3 months.

No 147 4th for Head Constable Thair Lommer

For some time past Superintendent has doubted if this Head Constable was fit to continue in charge of a ~~the~~ and after inspection of his ~~the~~ is now satisfied he is not so. The Head Constable has detected none of the few true cases he has had and proved useless when a case of some importance did occur so that a special officer had to be sent to detect it. He leaves numerous cases for investigation by Consts and never visits a beat, yet shows himself as continually engaged on investigations over which he certainly wasted an absurd amount of time. He had failed to get a list of and back his men the numerous undetected cases of last year of the adjacent ~~the~~ of Mulki. Even accoutrements were not looked after brass baton numbers being dull & one dark lantern being burnerless and full of dust and cobwebs.

The Head Constable is awarded 3 B. marks entailing reduction to 1st Cl. Constable (from 1582)

Copy of Minute dated 24th December 1882.

No 147 I Class Const Shakti Dammur.

This Constable on 6th November was sent to put one Starnappaya in possession of certain land under the D^o Magistrate's warrant and in due course produced Starnappaya's receipt purporting to be attested among others by Kaliangadi Potail Subbanna, however, shortly afterwards informed P.H.O. he had not attested the receipt and on Inspector's enquiry it appeared his signature had been forged and No 147 had remained at Starnappaya's house and sent Starnappaya to get the Potail's signature. 147 pleads he could not conveniently get the receipt signed in presence of all the witnesses together or he had moreover no reason to suspect Starnappaya would play any tricks. 147 is an exceedingly lazy man and by his laziness on this occasion has given rise to forgery or at all events very strong suspicion of forgery.

He is awarded 30 marks entailing reduction to 2nd C^l Constable (from 1.1.83).
