District Police Officer
 Palamooriah 19 June 1896

Douglas Robinson

District Superintendent of Police

Brief description

I order.

Minute to 18 of 1891.

On the 14th of August last, 4th Class Inspector Krishnasamy Anjar of Sankaranamarkoil Dr. reported that on visiting the Treasury Guard at 11.50 P.M. on the night of the 12th idam he found 18th Class Constable No 428 Sottramonia Kone absent from the Guard. On calling upon him for explanation, the Constable denied that he was absent from the Guard, that the Inspector was his enemy and requested a personal hearing before the District Superintendent.

At the same time he submitted a petition (received on 17.8.91) to me again denying his absence from the Guard. He added that the Inspector had falsely accused him of absence owing to the belief that he (Const 428) had instigated the submission of an anonymous petition to the permanent Dist Superintendent in which it was stated that Constable no 428, 331, 790 & 483 were in the habit of doing the Inspector's private work in his house.

The constable was given a personal hearing before me on the 26th August. He once more denied his absence and went on to say that since his transfer to Sankaranamarkoil the Division Inspr. was was in the habit of reacting private work from the Constables. i.e. attending at his house and accompanying his cart when on circuit. Constables 1028, 331, 790 & 483 were named in the petition as so doing. Mr. Stevenson then read the petition out in the presence of these Constables and though he insists that he was in the habit of attending at the Inspector's house Constable 428 admits he did not tell Mr. Stevenson so.

On the 12th August, he went on to say the Treasury Guard Head Constable ordered him to go to the Inspector's house as usual. He refused. That same night the Division Inspector returned from Karivalamvandan-nallur and asked his wife if any Constable had slept in the house. She replied in the negative (how and where he heard the conversation the Const. has since not said) and on hearing this the Division Inspector went to the Treasury Guard and abused him as "you Shepherd you have not attended at my house and I will put you in jail." This the Constable added was in the presence of

of the Subgaol guard warder and constable Shukh Hussain Sahib and 20508 whom he requested might be examined on his behalf. He also stated that on 15.7.91 certain other Constables had been found absent from the Treasury Guard by the Division Inspector who had however, not reported them for punishment.

Such was the statement made made by Constable 428 before me and I at once had further inquiries made. Constables 10290 (Shukh Hussain Sahib), 500, 494 & 3rd Grade Head Constable etc 739 all unanimously state when the Inspector visited the Guard on the night of the 12th August Constable 428 was absent. The Subgaol guard warder says he did not even see the Inspector and cannot say anything as to the absence of the Constable.

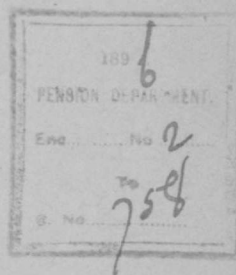

I think this conclusively proves that this Constable was absent and instead of admitting his fault as the other Constables who were found absent on the same night, did, and taking his punishment like a man he not only denies his absence but brings the most grossly insubordinate, malicious and false charges regarding his Division Inspector. As to the absence of certain Constables on the night of 15.7.91, this may be true, but has nothing whatever to do with the point in question. That the Constable was absent there is not the slightest doubt.

In a District like this where complaints of this description are only too numerous it would be positively dangerous to allow such charges to pass unnoticed.

I therefore order the reduction of 1st Class Constable No 428 Soabramonia Kone to the rank of 2cc. from this date for:-

- I. Absence from Treasury Guard on night of 12.8.91
- II. Denying his absence.
- III. Gross insubordination in bringing false and malicious charges against his Division Inspector.

A.B. Before taking a statement from this Constable I distinctly warned him that if the charges he was bringing were found false he would be reduced.

Minutes 2 of 1896

1st Class Constable No 428 Soabramonia Kone attached to Srirangapur Station Srirangapur Division.

- Charges:-
- (a) Absence from Sentry duty on morning of 22.11.95
 - (b) For lying in order to escape punishment.
 - (c) For insubordination towards his Inspector.

Treasury Guard Constable No 792 reports that he visited the Guard at 6 A.m on morning of 22.11.95 and found Sentry Constable No 428 who should have relieved 749 at 6 A.m absent. Having ordered 749 to continue performing Sentry duty till his arrival, he went out escorting prisoners for the purpose of nature - that while he was thus engaged, 749 came to him and reported that 1cc 428 made his appearance at 7.20 A.m and relieved him in the presence of the Station writer see no 204. That when he (Treasury Guard Constable No 792) returned to the Guard room, he found 428 on Sentry duty, and when he questioned him regarding his absence, he stated he went away on business.

The

The Treasury Head Constable made a note to that effect in the Sentrybook.
The Treasury Head Constable's statement is supported by the following Constables:- 2ccs 449 who was relieved by Const.
428 at 7.20 A.M. 1cc 227 the Station writer who was present when 428 made his appearance in the Guard room and relieved 449. Constables Nos. 636 and 909 who escorted prisoners from the Sub. gaol with the Treasury Head Constable for the purpose of nature.
Constable No 686 Constable in waiting.

All these Constables when examined by Inspector Venoba Row state that 1cc 428 was absent.

Inspector reports that when he took 428 to task for his absence and asked him to cross examine the above men who deposed against him regarding his absence he behaved in an insubordinate manner in that, 428 accused him of instigating the Treasury Head Constable and other Constables to make a false report against him, and that he (428) remarked in an impertinent way that he

he had served under many Inspectors, and that he (Inspector) could submit any report he liked against him.

1st class Constable No 428 in his defence, denies that he was absent at the time stated supra, and says that on the evening of 22.11.95 he was appointed petty officer in charge of the Guard and Complainants of the long stretch of duty he had to perform (ie) from 6. P.M. on 21.11.95 to 9. A.M. on 22.11.95. He further states that enmity exists between him and the Treasury Head Constable and that he has ineffectually reported him.

It is true 428 was appointed Petty officer in charge of the Guard on night of 21.11.95 as the Station writer 1st class Constable No 227 had reported Sick. On the previous day (ie) 21.11.95 he was off duty and therefore his turn of sentry duty commenced at 6 A.M. on 22.11.95 and should have been present.

In the present case I should have let him off with a warning if he had admitted his absence in a straightforward manner, but as he has perjured

prevaricated in the most barefaced way and behaved in a most insubordinate manner towards his Inspector, I cannot let this matter pass without taking notice of his disorderly conduct.

That he was absent from sentry duty on the morning of 22. 11. 95 has been proved beyond all doubt. On 4. 9. 91 he was reduced for a similar offence, when he also brought false and malicious charges against his Inspector.

This punishment has had absolutely no effect on him. He is evidently a most troublesome and insubordinate man.

On 28. December the above minutes was read out to him when he was given a personal hearing, and still denies that he was absent and attributes the present charge to enmity between him and the Inspector as well as the Treasury Head Constable.
The

The supposed enmity between him and the Inspector is that he reposed him for punishment on previous occasions!!

I am satisfied that the charges have been proved beyond all doubt and accordingly recommend his reduction to 2nd Class.

(Signed) B. G. Laggath.
4 January 1896. Asst. Supt. of Police

The reduction of Sec 428 Soobramonia Kore to 2nd Class is sanctioned.

He is warned that an accumulation of 3 more Black Marks will entail his dismissal.
