Read the following

(1) The medical certificate has been forwarded to the Surgeon-General for countersignature and return to the Accountant-General direct.

(2) The applicant is at present seriously ill and bed-ridden and is therefore unable to present himself to make an affidavit.

(3) The affidavit already forwarded appears to meet the several points e.g. it states that the applicant was employed permanently and continuously, and as regards "the exact period" it is shown in the application for pension that the affidavit was to cover the period from 1st May 1866 to 31st March 1876 a period embraced by the tenure of the appointments of members of Council by the several Gentlemen mentioned as

Mr. Phillips from 16th December '64 to 9th Dec^r '69
" Ellis " 22nd December '69 to 6th March '70
" Sim " 7th March '70 to 6th March '71
" Ellis " 9th March '75 to 11th March '76

(4) The applicant's name was not shown in the Peons' list because he was from 1st May 1866 to 31st March 1876 under Members of Council to whom it was then the practice to hand over lump sums for payments to their Cheldars and Peons.
