Copy of Minute dated 7th April 1882.

No 78 4th Head Const Raffiuddin.

About 4 p.m. of 7th ultimo Const 750 returning from Shankernarain beach brought some new clothing and a radary containing the descriptive roll of one Krishna Dass wanted for a Mundapur case of grievous hurt on attempt to murder and delivered both to watch Constable 243. Neither 750 nor 243 can read and it does not appear either knew the radary, ^{was} marked "express". Head Const 78 returning about 6 p.m. from Hebri beach was told of the arrival of the clothing and radary, but, thinking as he says the radary referred to the clothing, did not look at it till next morning and so delayed its transmission to Hebri. The Head Constable is a lazy careless man and at recent inspection was warned by Superintendent to mend his ways in these respects.

He is awarded 30 marks entailing reduction to 1st class Constable for 3 months from 8.4.82.

Copy of Minute dated 23rd January 1884.

No. 78 4th grade Head Constable Raffiuddin.

At inspection on 19th Inst of this Head Constable Station, Superintendent found little known of the 1883 undetected cases of Harkal Sts, Head Constable having failed to get particulars of them until 6 days previously, and that the important amended sections of the new C.C.P. had not been properly taught, one Const (545) not even knowing sec 54 in which circumstances under which arrest without warrant can be made are defined.

On the 23rd July last report was made of missing of one Ananthaya and on enquiry it appeared he (poor) was probably drowned when crossing a flooded stream on 15th idm. In Sept^r there reached Sts a circular radary from Kirimaj Sts dated 10th of the month and describing the finding on sea shore obviously on same date, of a decomposed & unidentifiable male corpse. This corpse could clearly not have been that of Ananthaya after such an interval, yet on 26th December, having meanwhile got no clue to Ananthaya's fate, the Head Constable reports to Magistrate & records in Register the Kiriman-jeshwar corpse must have been that of Ananthaya and writes of it as if it had been found about the time of Ananthaya's disappearance.

Copy of Minute dated 14th September 1894.

1. No 78 IInd Head Constable Raffiuddin, Station, Kasseragod &c.
2. Disobedience of orders and neglect of duty.
3. While this Head Constable was on leave a heavy housebreaking case with Rs 651 worth of property lost was reported at his station on 12.7.94. Inspector was engaged in the case and had to leave it because of other important cases reported. He on the 23rd July wrote an order to this Head Constable to go on with the investigation of the case. The Const received this order on 25.7.94 on which day he had returned to duty. Again on 1.8.94 Inspector had to send him an order to the same effect followed by a third one on 10.8.94. The Const made his first investigation on 19.8.94. His Inspector submitted roll against him on 29.8.94.
4. The evidence against him is the report of the Inspector and the Station House Reports which do not show that he was working at this case until 19.8.94.

His defence is a plea of illness that he was suffering from a boil and had fever and that he was engaged in investigating other cases near the Station.

Conclusion:- It was this Head Constable's duty even without any order from his Inspector to go on with the investigation of of this case. He not only did not do his duty but in spite of special orders from his Inspector he did not make an investigation between 25.7.94 and 19.8.94. He can be reduced under the B mark system but such conduct as this well deserves the punishment of reduction. If all as he says he was, there was nothing to prevent him from going to Hospital. There were no cases of any importance near his Stn. to engage his attention.

5. Reduced to 4th fr 3rd Const with effect from 1.9.94 for neglect of duty and disobedience of orders in not investigating a heavy house-breaking case.

6. Not suspended.

No 208.
Copy of order of the Deputy Inspector General of Police, Southern Range, on appeal petition of 4th fr 3rd Constable 78 Raffiuddin of South Canara, District.

1. 3rd grade Head Const 78 is reduced to 4th fr Head Constable for neglect in not investigating a heavy house-breaking.

2. On the 12th July a heavy house-breaking was reported at Adur Station, Head Constable No 78 the Station House Officer was was then on leave. On the 25th July No 78 returned to duty. The same day 78 got an order from his Inspector to continue the investigation of the house-breaking which his Inspector had commenced. This order was followed by two others to the same effect viz:- on the 1st August and 10th August.

Head Const 78 did not begin his enquiry till the 19th August. That No 78 did not enquire till the 19th is established by the Station Reports.

3. I consider the explanation given by Head Constable No 78 for this neglect is most unsatisfactory.

4. He has been properly punished by reduction.

5. Order is confirmed.
