Extract, paragraphs 6 and 7, from a Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India,—No. 44, dated 11th February 1886.

6. I am, however, unable to accede to your recommendation for the grant of a special pension to * * * * as, although he is an efficient and meritorious officer, his qualifying period of service is comparatively short, and his services do not appear to be of such extraordinary merit as to give him a claim to a pension in excess of the maximum amount admissible under rule to an officer of approved service.

7. I take this opportunity of reminding Your Excellency that, if special pensions are given for anything short of the highest merit, they tend inevitably to be granted as a rule, and officers who receive, on retirement, only the maximum rate of pension for which they are eligible under rule will regard themselves, and will be regarded by their friends, as slighted.

Extract, paragraph 2, from a Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India,—No. 141 (Financial), dated 23rd July 1891.

2. In considering the grant of exceptional pensions, it is necessary to bear in mind the important difference in the case of civil officers who entered the service before the 19th of May 1855, for whom pensions exceeding Rs. 5,000 a year may, under the rules, be recommended if the service has been of extraordinary merit, and that of officers who entered subsequently to that date, for whom there is no such provision. Special pensions which are in excess of the amounts authorized by the Regulations should, as was observed by the Earl of Kimberley in his Despatch of the 11th of February 1886, No. 44, be only granted for the highest merit.

Extract, paragraphs 3 and 4, from a Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India,—No. 133 (Financial), dated 8th August 1895.

3. In paragraph 9 of Sir Henry Fowler's Despatch, dated the 11th of April 1895, No. 59, the grant of an additional pension of Rs. 1,000 a year was sanctioned in the case of Heads of Departments, provided that they shall have rendered not less than three years' service in that capacity, and have shown during such service special energy and efficiency in the discharge of their duties.

4. The cases in which the grant to other officers of a pension of Rs. 6,000 a year is recommended should, therefore, be very exceptional; but in view of the opinions expressed in your Despatch as to * * * * services, I sanction the grant to him of a special pension of Rs. 6,000 per annum.

RESOLUTION.—The Government of India consider it desirable to circulate, for the information of Local Governments, the instructions quoted in the preamble, issued by the Secretary of State from time to time in regard to the class of cases in which proposals may be entertained for the grant of special additional pensions in excess of the maximum of Rs5,000 a year ordinarily admissible under rule.

2. It may be mentioned that since the beginning of the year 1882 forty applications have been made for special pensions in excess of Rs5,000 a year, out of which twenty-seven have been accepted. Of these twenty-seven cases, eleven referred to officers holding appointments which would now render them eligible by rule for an additional pension of Rs1,000 a year under the Resolution of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 2958 P., dated 22nd June 1895; so that only sixteen cases in all have been accepted during fourteen or fifteen years as coming within the limitations, as they now apply, of the orders quoted in the preamble.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be forwarded to all Local Governments and Administrations, to all Departments of the Government of India, and to all Heads of Departments subordinate to this Department.
