The medical officer has having scored out the words "of any kind" in line 9 of the accompanying medical certificate, it seems doubtful whether in his opinion the applicant is fit for work of a less laborious character, than that which he has been doing.
If so, the certificate should be modified accordingly - vide 2nd para of the form of certificate given in Article 491(a) of the Civil Service Regulations.

In that case, the Head of office will be requested to state whether a post of a less laborious character is available for the applicant, so that the payment of a gratuity to him may be avoided.
