Refce. Letter from the Head Asst. Collector of Coimbatore dated 21/4/96 Dis No 55/Rev of 96 forwarding an application for pension on behalf of M. Veerasami Naidu late 3rd Gumastha of the Palladam Taluk –

From the Service Register it appears that ~~the~~ Veerasami Naidu was serving as a writer in the Inam Commission Deputy Collector's office on Rs 20 from 1st March 1861 to 31st July 1862. This period ~~[illegible]~~ service still remains unverified for want of the necessary records of the Inam Deputy Collector's office. The Tahsildar is therefore requested to obtain and forward at once statements in writing (affidavits) containing the testimony of not less than 2 contemporary servants in support of the above period. An affidavit should also be taken from Veerasami Naidu with reference to the above period.

No 159

From
The Ag Head Assistant Collector of Coimbatore

To,
The Collector of Coimbatore.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring the following case to your notice for orders.

2- Veerasamy Naidu, Clerk in the Mettoopalaiyam Deputy Tahsildar's office applied for and was granted one month's privilege leave from 14th January 1874. He applied for 3 months extension on forfeiture of full pay. The privilege leave was cancelled and he was granted 4 months leave from the 14th January on forfeiture of pay. He however did not return to duty till 14th June 1874 thus overstaying his leave for a month.

(3) Under Section 15 Supplement F of the Civil leave Code he has forfeited his appointment.

(4) His explanation is that he thought he was entitled to four months in addition to the one month's privilege leave.

(5) He has been in Government employ over years and I can hardly see how he can have made the error.

Remarks

The entry of the date of birth of the applicant is given as 28-2-41 in the Annual return for 1879, and as 28-4-41 in the returns from 1880 to 1885. These dates are wrong. The correct date is 30-3-41 and has been correctly entered in the returns from 1886 onwards.

2- In the return for 1882, Private affairs leave granted to the applicant is shewn to have Commenced from 14-3-82. The correct date is however 15-3-82 as shewn in the Service Register as also in the return for 1883.

Again in the return for 1885, the leave without allowances granted to the applicant is shewn to have ended on 7-4-85. The correct date is however 6-4-85 as shewn in the Service book and in the return for 1886.

3- In the return for 1893, the applicant's name does not appear as under the original orders he was dismissed from Service with effect from 1-1-93. Vide remarks against his name in the "Detailed Statement of New names &c" for 1893. He has was however reinstated by the Board in its Proceedings

dated dated 26-1-94 No 384 Mis: and the period between the date of his dismissal viz 1-1-93 and the date of his joining duty viz 5-4-94 was ordered by the Board in its Proceedings dated 9-5-94 No 2515 Mis: to be regarded as period of suspension. The fact of suspension has not however been noted in the return for 1894 owing perhaps to the non-receipt of the above Boards Proceedings at the time of the preparation of the return.

4- From 16-11-66 to 14-12-66 the applicant acted as Revenue Inspector in the arrangement of Revenue Inspector Venkatasubbaiya on private affairs leave.

5- In the return for 1865 the applicant's name appears in the Establishment list of Satyamangalam Taluk though strictly speaking it ought to have been shewn in the list of the Establishment of the Northern Division Deputy Collector's office.

6- The period of the service of the applicant as a writer in the Inam Commission Deputy Collector's office on Rs 20 from 1-3-61 to 31-7-62 has not been verified owing to the want of the Pay Abstracts and as no contemporary servants are living now. The period in question has not therefore been reckoned as service but the exclusion of this period does not however affect the amount of pension payable to the applicant as he has otherwise completed more than 25 years qualifying service. In this connection, vide the 8 records stitched together and marked as enclosure

7- The applicant is shewn to have been on private affairs leave on half pay from 5-5-65 to 4-8-65 and from 16-3-69 to 31-5-69. The grant of such leave does not appear to be in consonance with the present rules on the subject and for reasons explained in this office letter Reference on No 892/Superior of 4-5-96 with reference to the pension application of Mr Raghavendra Rao, late 3rd Vernacular Clerk of this office, the nomenclature of the above periods of leave may be modified into "sick leave". The applicant also appears to have been on privilege leave from 14-10-64 to 21-10-64 and from 19-12-64 to 22-12-64 the grant of which latter within 6 months of the former is also against present rules. The latter leave may however I think be regarded as casual leave.

8- From 14-5-74 to 13-6-74 the applicant had been absent without leave. His place was not however permanently filled up during his absence and he has not therefore forfeited his appointment. It is therefore

requested that this period may be commuted into leave without allowances under Article 464 of the Civil Service Regulations. For his fault of absence without leave, he was suspended for 1 month from 1-8-74 to 31-8-74
Vide Copies of 5 records on the subject stitched together and marked as Enclosure B.

9- From 1-1-93 to 4-4-94 the applicant
was under suspension - Copies of Board's Proceedings
No. 384 Mis: of 26-1-94 reinstating the applicant
in the office against the original order of dismissal and of Board's Proceedings No. 2515/Mis: of 1-5-94 directing that the period between the date of dismissal and the date of his rejoining duty viz 1-1-93 to 4-4-94 may be reckoned as suspension are stitched together and marked as Enclosure C.

10- From 4-5-78 to 30-6-78 the applicant
had been Nuisance Inspector at Mettapalaiyam on Rs. 30- This fact is noted in the Pay Abstracts of the Mettupalaiyam Deputy Tahsildar's office against the name of the applicant. He further seems to have been ordered to revert eventually to his permanent appointment as Gumastah Mettupalaiyam Deputy Tahsildar's office
as it was found that under the examination rules
he was not eligible for promotion from Rs 15 to 30-
The Pay Abstracts of the applicant as Nuisance Inspector are not available in the records and it has been found impossible to obtain the affidavits of Contemporary Servants. The period in question has not therefore been reckoned towards Service.

11- The delay in the submission of this pension application was unavoidable. The draft pension application was received in this office from the Head Assistant Collector on 22-4-96 and from that date much correspondence with other offices and search of records had to take place before the services of the applicant can be satisfactorily verified and closed.

No 179 of 93.

Read again palladam Tashildar's arzi No 324 dated 16th January 1893 bringing to notice the various irregularities committed by Virasawmi Naidu, 3rd gumasta palladam in connection with certain loan applications.

Read also this office proceedings No 25 dated 18.1.93 suspending Virasawmi Naidu for the irregularities committed by him in connection with certain loan papers.

Read also palladam Tashildar's arzi reporting that Virasawmi Naidu had in his box some darkast and pouthi papers undisposed of.

Read also Headgumasta Srikanta ayer's statement, also statements etc taken from Virasawmi Naidu.

Read also this office Ref on 106/V.G. dated 6th February 1893 to the Sub Collector forwarding certain loan papers for the perusal and remarks of the Tashildar of Erode.

Read also arzi from the Tashildar of Erode dated 20-2-92 No. 289/Genl returning the papers with his remarks thereon.

Order

Virasawmi Naidu, gumasta palladam Taluk, has been in charge of the loan work for some time. Rumors of corruption were about against him. It was said that he demanded two or three rupees from applicants as consideration for speedy disposed of and that he had no time to send them to the record room. Whether they are disposed of ~~are~~ or not will be ascertained at jamabundy. No excuse is sufficient for such old papers being kept in the clerk's box. It is notorious that for the speedy disposal of these matters darkasts, pouthies, and transfers parties do pay money to the officials concerned. In this branch of work particularily is it possible for gumastas to delay extort money. Whether Virasawmi Aiyar has done so or not I cannot say, but the discovery of this large bundle of old papers in his box is very suspicious. It remains to consider what should be done with him. He is an old man of the old school and will be entitled to pension before long. Regarding him Narayanaswami Ayar late Tashildar says I always marked him out as an untrustworthy man the only favourable side being his hard working capability. He was transferred from Mettupalayam on account of some unsatisfactory conduct. He had frequently to be checked for delays which I took as intentional. He is thus a man under suspicion for a long time. Now he is found guilty of entering 230 loan papers as disposed of which were really pending and of keeping in his box bundles of transfers darkhasts, and pouthis — apparently undisposed of since 1299. I consider that such conduct ~~prohibits~~ forfeits his claim to pension — which is a reward for good service — not for service of this kind. I resolve therefore to dispense with his services forthwith.

SIR,

In returning herewith your letter No. $\frac{\text{A.D.K}}{145}$ of 19th June 1896 with its enclosures in re the pension application of Veerasami Naidu late 3rd Gumastah, Palladam Taluk, I have the honor to report as follows on the points raised therein.

1- The leave in question was one granted so long ago as December 1864 and seeing that the duration of the leave was only 4 days I recommend that it may be treated as Casual leave. Vide the concluding sentence of para 7 of Enc: D. to the pension application under reference.

2- The applicant explains that as his services in the Inam Deputy Collector's Office lasted only for a short time and as he was furnished with a fresh appointment within a very short time (2 months and 20 days) after the abolition of the Inam Deputy Collector's Office he did not apply for any gratuity nor was he granted any.

3- A sum of Rs 50 was paid to the applicant out of the
