3rd Grade Head Constable no 144 Muhammad Dutt Sahib is reduced to 2nd class Constable for failing to report a grave case of theft and for subsequently referring a true case as false and for persuading the complainant to state that no property was lost.

Minute.

On the 4th August at 2 P.M. there was a great disturbance at Natham caused by a gang of Beluchees. 3rd Grade Head Constable no 144 of Natham station was at the time in Natham.

On the 5th August at 2 P.M. Sadi Badshah of Natham came to Melur and complained to the Melur Station House Officer that the day previous hearing a disturbance had taken place in his house, went there, he saw two or three Beluchee women at the door, on attempting to go inside his house, the women prevented his ingress, a short time after, two or three Beluchee women came from the inside of the house, the women then all left on going inside his house, he found it a state of disorder and jewels valued at Rs 335 which had been kept in safe missing; he further stated that he had complained to the station house officer of Natham, and also to the V.M who had done nothing.

The Melur Station House Officer hearing that the gang had gone to Kottampatty communicated this information to the Kottampatty Station House Officer who sent for the Natham Station House Officer who arrived at Kottampatty at 5 A.M. of the 6th.

At Kottampatty, the Ratham Station House officer saw one Appor Pillai of Karungalakudy and endeavoured to get him to persuade the Complainant to state that no property had been taken by the Beluchee women and that the property he had stated was stolen, had subsequently been found by him in his house, Appor Pillai refused to do this, but subsequently the Ratham Station Officer got Dadir Badshah to say he was not sure the property had been taken by the Beluchees, and that therefore there was no necessity to search them, the case was therefore dropped and the Beluchees were allowed to proceed unmolested. Subsequently the Station House officer referred the case as false on the grounds that Dadir Badshah had stated that he found the property reported to have been lost.

The Division Inspector in getting information of this case went to Ratham, and on his local enquiry ascertained that the crime had been committed as reported in the first instance by the Complainant, and that afterwards on the persuasion of the Ratham Station House Officer, he had stated that no crime had been committed by the Beluchees. The Inspector asked the Complainant to show him the property he had stated he had found, and which property he had previously stated was stolen; the Complainant could produce no such property.

That there was a great disturbance in Ratham caused by the Beluchees on the afternoon on the 4th is fully established; this disturbance must have come to the notice of the Ratham Station House Officer, in his report of the 4th, and mention was made of this by the Ratham Station House Officer.

I am also satisfied that the complaint of the theft was made to the Station House officer, the Complainant on arriving at Melur, stated, that he had reported the theft to the Station House officer of Ratham who had refused to take Cognizance of it: the Complainant had no objection in coming 24 miles to make a false complaint against the Beluchees, there does not appear to have been any quarrel between the Complainant and the Beluchees.

I am quite satisfied that this crime was committed, that it was reported to the Station House officer, that he in the first instance failed to report it, and that subsequently on the case coming to the notice he persuaded the Complainant to make a false statement and then referred that case as false well knowing at the time that the case was true.
