No 141. Certified that I have carefully examined 1st Grade Head Constable No. 158 Thondavarayan Naiker son of Panusoorama Naiker in the Police Department. His age is by his own statement 49 years and by appearance about 49 years. I consider that the said Thondavarayan Naiker to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Police Depart. in consequence of Malarial Cachexia. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Minute No 273 of 4-10-91

1st G. H.C. No 158
Thondroza Stn

A Cover addressed by name to Inspector Ramanujalu Naidu was sent to him by Superintendent by Post containing an important paper which it was not intended that this H.Const. should see. It was delivered to H.Const. 158 by the Postal Peon at about 11-30 A.M. of the 16 May or thereabouts. The Head Constable opened this Cover and took it to the Inspector. The Inspector had taken charge at 8 A.M. and all Covers should have been sent to him and not opened by the H.Const. especially one addressed by name.

The Inspector asked to excuse him but I called for his explanation & this instead of sending through the Inspector he sent direct to the Superintendent of Police.

The Inspector again reported him for great delay in disposing of a Case under Sec 325 I.P.C. The Case was registered on the 15 March and up to the 12 June it had not been disposed of. And in this Case too, the Inspector says the Head Constable refused to give his explanation and sent it direct to the Superintendent.

The Head Constable also failed to send the Conviction list of one Murugan of Aryambakam to the Officer in charge of the Station to which Aryambakam is attached exhibiting great Carelessness on his part.

On the 9 July the Inspr. reported that

3,000—3—94.

that this Head Constable when called on for an explanation behaved in a very insubordinate manner and said that if he gets him punished for such insignificant faults as above, petitions will go against him & that he is reporting all these things with a view that they will save him (Inspector) in case of his getting into trouble. This was on the 7. July and on the 8 July when asked for explanation for his insubordinate conduct, he said that he had sent it direct to the Superintendent of Police

The Inspector further reports on the 1st August that this Head Const has been carrying tales against him to the Sub Magistrate with a view to prejudice his mind against him.

The explanation of the Head Constable which is a very long one and which was received on 9 July but only lately given to me translated owing to pressure of work in the office is in itself a most insubordinate production.

He first of all commences to give an account of his own family number of wives & children, he and his brother have and to show what a good man he is and then proceeds to give the history of the character of his Inspector and to vilify him as much as possible & says that the Insp. thinks himself to be the Emperor of the world and there is no one equal to him and makes other random assertions against him. H Const (158) also admits that he had a hand in some petitions that were sent against the Inspector & says that the Insp. is always trying to find fault with him & others. There are many other insubordinate things in the H Const's explanation which has only to be perused to be seen. As to his opening the cover he says it was through oversight as he used to do & as the address was in English he did not understand that it was addressed to the Insp. & that the Inspector has reported him with a view to make it a good defence for fulfilling his future object. I do not think his explanation satisfactory. The Insp. really asked to excuse him. If he could not understand a cover addressed in English he should certainly have taken it to his Inspr. or some one before opening it. The cover was purposely addressed to the Inspector by name to prevent the H Const seeing it.

As to the delay in disposing of the grievous hurt case under Sec 325 I.P.C he states that from the 30 March to the 16 May he was in charge of the Division and was engaged in some dacoity, murder and House Breaking cases & that he directed the in charge Const 339 & 199 to dispose of the case & that 199 is responsible for the wrong entry of the HD in the Conviction Register.

Whoever was responsible for the delay & the wrong entry it was the duty of the Inspr. to check it and prevent such delay and report the man in fault.

The Inspector who was only a short while in charge discovered these irregularities & checked them while the Ag: Inspr. (H Const 158) took no notice of them and allowed a case to go on for months without taking any steps to see that it was promptly disposed of. The Head Const sets a very bad example to his men who of course follow suit and discipline vanishes substituted by insubordination.

When I visited the Madurantakam Station of which the H. Const is in charge of on the 1st August the H. Const did not know where the K. D's live and all about them and so his men were as bad. His Crime abstract for 1890 was wrongly prepared in pencil and some omissions made & detection bad, especially in thefts. The Head Constable had not gone often ~~as~~ enough on beat and knew nothing about his work. His explanation is that he was suffering from Diarrhoea & dysentery and as to the bad detection grain is stolen and consumed and so such cases are undetectable and the Constables are insufficient and that as he had been often on detective duty the roster does not show that he has been on beat for many days. He admits having failed to prepare the abstracts correctly.

His explanation about his sickness is disproved by the Hospital assistant. He says there was nothing so bad as to incapacitate him from doing his work, & the other part of his explanation is unsatisfactory. The fact seems to be that this Head Constable and his men had it too much their own way and now that the present Inspector is more strict they ~~[illegible]~~ rebel. The defaulter sheet of this H. Const shows that he was once before punished for insubordination in 1871. Insubordination towards a superior officer is an offence which cannot be tolerated and taking into consideration the other neglect on part of the H. Const, I reduce him to 2 grade for 3 months and warn him that any future instance of insubordination will be met with suspension or dismissal or permanent reduction.
