After much consideration I do not see any clear way out of this business. It is a case of the Taluq Subordinates on one side & the late acting Sheristadar on the other. It is very possible that the Sheristadar never removed the record in case No $\frac{22}{87}$ from the Taluq Catchery, but there is ~~a~~ an indecision about his conduct that is rather against this. It is probable that if he took it away to write judgement he returned it. My own opinion is in this way, because I think that the record Gumastah was in want of the paper to prepare copy he would have taken care that it was received back when according to his own statement to me he knew that the Sheristadar had taken it away. However, that may be, I distinctly think that there is no sufficient reason for holding the Dufterbund alone responsible. If it never passed out of the Taluq, it ought according to the rules for the Taluq work to have passed from his to the Magisterial Clerks hands & there is no reason why it should have been detained or not passed on by the Dufterbund

The only individual who would seem to be likely to profit by the disappearance of the documents would be the magisterial Clerk as his father's conduct was according to the Sheristadar's unfavourably regarded. The suspension is annulled. Ramasamy Pillai will take warning by this case not to remove records nor to return them except under voucher. If he had done his magisterial work punctually in the Taluq as he has not, I could have disposed ~~of~~ this case with more certainty

Sir,

In reply to your letter No $\frac{A.D.K.}{267}$, dated 12th August 1896, pointing out certain defects in the pension application of T. Subramania Pillai, late Duftarband, Deputy Tahsildar's office, Palamcottah, I have the honor to state that the applicant's name appears as "Subramoniyan" in the office copy of the annual returns without any initials appended to his name from 1869 to 74 until his name was borne on the Huzur Establishment list; but on 15th July 1874 he was transferred to the Tinnevelly Taluk where he appears to have added the appellation of "Pillai" to his name. His initials do not appear in any of the subsequent lists. His name will be identified by a reference to the name of the last of the 8 attenders on Rupees 7 noted in the April lists of the several years from 1869 to 1874. The initials P. G. are not therefore the initials of the applicant; but they are those of another Subramania Pillai whose
