GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Sir,

With reference to P.M.G., Mis. No. 1501-Revenue, dated 25th April 1893, I have the honor to acquaint you that T. Seshachallam Naidu, late a clerk in the Cinchona Department having been given a permanent appointment in the Commissariat count towards pension and offers to return the amount of compensation pension paid to him.

2. The Director of Government Cinchona Plantations etc., who has been asked for the service book of this clerk, states that it was submitted to the Madras Government with the application for compensation gratuity as required by Article 990, suggests application being made to Government for the same.

3. I accordingly request that you will be pleased to
