Sir,

In reply to your letter No. A. D. K dated 21st August 1896. I have 291. the honour to invite reference to the entries in the Service book from which it will be seen that the applicant had been on probation from the Confirmed on the 30th idem. The period of probation has been treated as qualifying for pension under article 408 of Civil Service Regulations and the date of appointment entered in the application as the beginning of service in the Court. As regards the second question raised, I have to state that the applicant's service from 6th January 1880 to 31st January 1894, though now treated as permanent under G.C. no 5 dated 9th January 1894, had been, till the issue of the G.C., regarded as temporary. Vide entries in the application. It is for this reason that his name finds no place in the annual returns relating to

Yas

to that period.
