Extract from the Minute Book.

4th Grade Head Constable No 834 Balaprasad of Mandyal.

He borrowed Rupees 20 from the Soddy Renter's Agent about a year ago and executed a document promising to pay the amount with interest but failed to do so and threatened the man when asked for the money vide the Soddy Renter's Agent's petition attached to this.

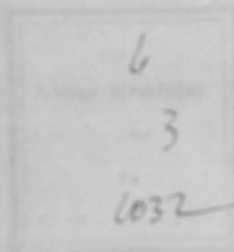

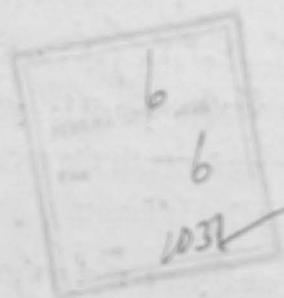

The debt is admitted by the Head Constable who now promises to pay up the amount with interest; but as it is necessary to let the members of the District Force know that they cannot be allowed to do this sort of thing & borrow money from Ahkari Agents living in the limits of their Station, I reduce Head Constable No 834 to 1st class Constable from this date.

17th January 1884. (Signed) G. R. Hodgson Major
D^y Superintendent of Police.

Order on appeal petition from late 4th Grade Head Constable Balaprasad No 834 of Kurnool District.

The acting Deputy Inspector General of Police sees no reason to interfere with the order of reduction against the petitioner.

It is strictly against orders for Police Officers to borrow money, having however borrowed it he proceeds to threaten the lender on the latter demanding back his money. His general character is reported as "Indifferent" and his defaulters shew that he is generally careless and on one occasion made false entries in the Roster to hide his absence without leave. Such a man cannot be trusted to perform the duties of a Head Constable.
Shew
