Minute no. 95
3rd Grade 2nd Constable no. 944. Naghabingam Pillai Paramaguz station. N. Division
1st class Const. no. 557. Shikhan, Paghalur station N. Division
Charge - 1. Gross neglect and carelessness in investigating a robbery committed on 9th October 1888 at Tiruvady.
2. The bonafides of their conduct being open to very grave suspicion.
3rd Grade 2nd Constable no. 944. Dismissed the force from date of his suspension with loss of all pay due.
1st class Const. no. 557. reduced to 3rd class and to forfeit his pay for one month from the date of his suspension.
(Signed) J. N. Smith
Sp. Secy Supt of Police.

On the 9th of October, during the night a robbery was committed about one furlong from Tiruvady. Six shepherds were sleeping near their flock of sheep penned in a Omijah when they were attacked by thieves. 1st witness resisted and was severely beaten about the head & shoulder and became insensible. Three more of the shepherds were also severely beaten the remaining two managed to escape without injury. Two men of Devandamur (distance 300 yards from Tiruvady) aroused by the cries proceeding from the direction of the latter village ran to the spot & joined 2 of the shepherds in pursuing the robbers, who had driven away some of the sheep. 1st witness as before mentioned had become insensible 2nd witness a lad of about 14 years of age who received a severe blow on the head which caused a gaping wound ran home to Devandamur & was met on the outskirts of the village by his mother and others, who had been aroused by the noise proceeding from the direction of Tiruvady. These particulars regarding 2nd witness were not reported either by the Head Constable or Constable.
2. The two men who had gone in pursuit of the thieves were were returning the following morning after an unsuccessful search when they said they came upon some sheep grazing in a field and recognized them as their own. There were 15 in all, the exact number stolen, they drove them back to Sirinady.

The occurrence was reported to the Poghahur Police the following morning & I.C.C. No. 557, then in charge of the case registering the case as one of ~~the~~ dacoity. (The V.M. not having mentioned the number of robbers) proceeded to the scene of crime, inspected the spot with the V.M. of Brumjoo, a village about ^{of a} 1/4 mile north west of Sirinady (Devandamur being south east of the same village) and examined all the witnesses, seven of whom live at Devandamur & one at Brumjoo, their several statements were corroborative.

He examined the wounds inflicted on witnesses 1 to 4 & deemed them insignificant but nevertheless told them to go to Hospital; which he says the witnesses refused to do. He did not press the point & he slept at Brumjoo for the night, next morning accompanied by V.M. went to several villages obtained no clue or trace of the robbers; the same day the Sd Const. No. 944 of Paramagudy received an order from the Divisional Superintendent, who was investigating a sheep dacoity at the time to assist No. 557, he left immediately with Const. No. 230 of his station & revisiting the scene of crime, examined all the witnesses who gave statements similar to those taken from them by 557. the previous day. the Head Constable made further enquiries but without result. he & No. 557 met at Poghahur in the evening; from this day till the 15th the Head Constable & Const. No. 557 & 230. alleged that they went to various villages but could obtain no information regarding the robbers; on the 15th Head Constable & 230. returned to Paramagudy.

On the 14th instant the Asst Supt. arrived at Poghahur late at the night, the following morning he read over the record of the case in the crime Register & in the note book of No. 557. went on to Sirinady in the afternoon and began begin investigations which he was unable to continue owing to heavy & continuous rain that fell on that day; so went on to Paramagudy, leaving summonses for the witnesses to appear before him at Paramagudy the following day. they appeared, were examined & corroborated their former statements & returned to their villages that evening. The following day 17th the Asst Supt. visited Brumjoo Devandamur & Sirinady learnt upon his arrival at Devandamur that 2nd witness (who had not appeared at Paramagudy) had died at 7.0 clock that morning.

The body was immediately inspected & a large gaping wound found on the top of the skull; the corpse was despatched at once to Paramagudy Hospital for the Apothecary's Certificate regarding the nature of this wound.

The deceased's mother alleged that her son had been subject to fits, and since the day he had come running to her saying he had been beaten by robbers he had been ill, and had succumbed during a fit, that morning.

It may here be mentioned that 1st witness had a large contused wound on his skull - & bone marks of severe beating about his body was still in a very weak condition on the 17th (8 days after the robbery). The other two witnesses who were beaten had not been so seriously injured.

In the evening upon the Asst Supt's return to Paramagudy he received the Apothecary's certificate to the effect that as the deceased was said to have been subject to fits, the blow on his skull had apparently brought on a fresh attack to which he had succumbed.

The deceased had been seriously ill, had not been reported either by Sd Constable or Constables No. 557.

Both the Sd Constable & Constable reported the wounds inflicted on the witnesses beaten to be of a trivial nature, and neither insisted upon their going to Hospital, thus calmly discarding the all important medical evidence. Should the case have been eventually charged either as robbery or grievous hurt in the event of the theft not being proved.

Their investigation was desultory in the extreme. Their misleading

misleading reports regarding the nature of the wound inflicted upon witnesses 1 to 4. And their quick acceptance of the witnesses' refusal to go to Hospital. taking it for granted, they did refuse; all these things added to the publicity which must attach itself to such a crime, committed in the manner described, leads me to believe that the real facts of the offence which was committed on the 9th night, have not been truthfully represented and that they (the 1st Constable & Constable) are parties to concealing them, but absolving them of this suspicion, both the 1st Constable & Constable practically gave the case up when the former returned to Paramagudy on the 16th (4 days after he had begun his investigation) and their wandering about from village to village in an aimless manner without any reputed clue or suspicion to take them to the greater crimes, and the utter absence of any result, cannot but raise the suspicion, they did not visit all the villages they said they did & that they did next to nothing, but examined the witnesses & then throw up the case as a bad job the sheep having been recovered.

The Head Constable No. 944. has 26 entries in his defaulters sheet & a glance at the attached Copy will show that he has been a constant shirker of duty & has on two previous occasions been credited with suspicious conduct in the discharge of his duty.

1st Class Constable No. 557. has eight entries none of which are of a very serious nature and for this reason coupled with the fact that he was under the orders of the Head Constable during the investigation of this case. I recommend him to be reduced only to 3rd class.

Both men had been given a personal hearing the 1st Constable had no defence to offer merely admitting when asked why he had not sent the wounded witnesses to Hospital that it was "his mistake", the Constable also had nothing to say in his defence.

Considerable delay has been caused in the submission of this minute owing to the original rough Copy of a former minute with the records having been stolen with a box box full of other papers from the Asst Supdt whilst on his return from Madras to Madurai in January & an opportunity was also given to the 1st Constable and Constable to retrieve their conduct under the supposition that they had merely neglected their duty from shyness.

(Signed) G. W. Hunt.

Asst Supdt of Police

I sanction the reduction of 1st Con. No. 944. to 4th Grade & of 1st Con. No. 557 to 2nd class from date of their suspension. They are ^{not} acquitted of blame and will therefore forfeit pay while under suspension to this date, when they are released from suspension.
