It is observed from the remark opposite to A^o 1 in the 3rd page of the application, that the character and past conduct of the applicant have been recorded as "Fair and latterly Indifferent". It rests, therefore, with Government to make such reduction in the amount of Pension that may be sanctioned to him as it may deem proper with reference to Article 574 (b) of the Regulations.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Inspector General of Police in his letter of 12th of 23 January 1896.

As a part of the applicant's service was paid from Provincial Revenue and a part from Assigned Tracks the pension that is admissible to him is debitable to the two sources according to the rules of proportions as particularized in the margin.

to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

I hardly think any reduction is necessary in this case. His offences are not numerous or very serious and the departmental punishment is adequate.
