No. 3367 Misc:

READ the following letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement, No 5 Party, South Arcot, dated 22nd October 1888 No 572/225:—

In acknowledging the receipt of Service Registers of V. Subbarama aiyar and R. Gopala aiyar alluded to in the Board's Proceedings No 2147 Mis, dated 18th August last, I have the honor to observe that portions of their services in the Settlement department which have been forfeited by them by dismissal and resignation, have been verified in the Central office and verification of those services belonging to the Survey department which have also been been forfeited has been ordered.

2. In some of the Service Registers received with the above proceedings, services rendered in the temporary establishment have also been verified in the Board's office.

3. I doubt whether it is necessary o verify the services forfeited as well as those rendered in the temporary establishment, as they do not reckon towards pension. There are several cases of this kind and if such services are be verified, as a matter of course, good deal of work will be hrown on the establishment ithout, in my opinion, com- ensurate advantage.

4. I beg that necessary orders ay be issued for my guidance.

Resolution

t is unnecessary to verify purely nporary service, which does not nt for pension, nor service hich has been forfeited in consequence-

-sequence of dismissal or resignation. The service Register should, however, contain entries relating to such services.

1. In the Pension application and Service Register the applicant is shown to have been on sick leave from 16th February 1889 to 20th September 1889. His leave however was not brought to the detailed statement of new names, leave &c sent to the Accountant General along with the annual returns on 8th April 1889, as his pay for March 1889 was withheld for want of information in the regular pay bill for that month. The fact that he was on sick leave from 16th February 1889 was shown in the supplemental bill for March. His pay for February 1889 was drawn at Rs 20 by mistake for the whole month instead of pay from 1 to 15 and sick leave allowances from 16th to the end of the month. In the supplement pay pay bill of Permanent Establishment for March 1889 dated 6th May 1889 the sick leave allowance of Rs 10 due to this classifier for the month (March) was drawn and the amount overdrawn for the 13 days in February viz from 16th & 28th February 1889 at Rs 10 being the difference between the monthly rate of pay and allowances was refunded and the classifier was shown to have been on sick leave from 16th February 1889.

2. In the annual returns submitted by this office from 1887 the applicant's name was shown as T Veerasami Naik instead of T Veerasami Naidoo as shown in the record now submitted. The individual is nevertheless no other than the applicant himself.

3. Some alterations in the dates made in the Service Register previous to 31st December 1879 were not attested. As, however, this period has already been accepted by the Accountant General and Government when the gratuity roll was sanctioned in 1880 no attestation is now necessary.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture).

Dated 30th January 1897.

No. 743 Mis.

READ — the following remarks on the pension application of Trichinopoly Veeraswami Naidu, Classifier, Revenue Settlement, Party No. III, Godavari and Kistna, submitted by the Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement Party No. III dated 18th January 1897 No. 45:—

"1. In the Pension application and Service Register, the applicant is shown to have been on Sick leave from the 16th February 1889 to 20th September 1889. His leave, however, was not brought to the detailed Statement of new names, leave &c, Sent to the Accountant General, along with the annual returns on 8th April 1889, as his pay for March 1889 was withheld for want of information in the regular pay bill for that month. The fact that he was on Sick leave leave from 16th February 1889 was shown in the Supplemental bill for March. His pay for February 1889 was drawn at Rs 20 by mistake for the whole month instead of pay from 1st to 15th and Sick leave allowances from 16th to the end of the month. In the Supplemental pay bill of permanent Establishment for March 1889 dated 6th May 1889, the Sick leave allowance of Rs 10 due to this classifier for the month (March) was drawn and the amount overdrawn for the 13 days in February viz from 16th to 28th February 1889 at Rs 10 being the difference between the monthly rate of pay and allowances was refunded and the classifier was shown to have been on Sick leave from 16th February 1889.

2 In the Annual returns submitted by this office from 1887, the applicant's name was shown as T Veerasami Naik instead of T. Veerasami Naidu, as shown in the records now submitted. The individual is nevertheless no other than the applicant himself.

3 Some alterations in the dates made in the Service Register previous to 31st December 1879 were not attested. As, however, this period has already been accepted by the Accountant General and Government, when the gratuity roll was sanctioned in 1880, no attestatio is now necessary.

Resolution

The pension application of T. Veerasami Naidu, late classifier of Revenue Settlement Party No. III, received with the letter read abov will be submitted to Government through the Accountant General.
