COPIES OF TESTIMONIALS.

The bearer Comarasamy Pillai served the Court as Acting Gumastah, from 11th March to 31st July 1861, the date of its abolition. He is reported by the Sheristadar to have been Diligent in applying himself to work both in the English and Tamil Departments, so that he wants but opportunity to become a valueable public servant. He writes English very neatly.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Court this 31 st July 1861.—

(Signed) J. GORDON,
Principal Sadr Amin.

Certified that Comarasamy, Writer in the Medical Stores Trichinopoly, officiated in that capacity, for upwards of two years, whilst I was in charge and that he was steady & well conducted & most attentive to his duty. Having been several years in the office he has acquired an excellent knowledge of the duties appertaining thereto.—

The Writer has shown great pains in bringing the account into the clear order that the Superintendent wished. The Superintendent directed that all the books of the Jail should correspond not merely on calculation but also in the order of arrangement to facilitate comparison & the Superintendent is pleased to see that the writer Komarasamy Pillai has so thoroughly entered into the spirit of the order.

(Signed) R. BROWN,

The bearer Komarasamy Pillai served for six years on Trichinopoly District Jail Clerk under me so I have had ample opportunity of seeing what he has made of; and I have no hesitation in saying he is thoroughly efficient, there being not a single Department of his work that he does otherwise than well —Further he is well behaved, and regular and punctual in attendance at Office nor does he in the least shirk extra labour.

(Signed) W. A. SYMONDS,
Ag. Supt. Central Jail Salem.
27th May 1877.

During the time I have been Acting Superintendent, discharged his duties carefully & regularly.
