The humble Statement of Chokkalingam Pillay, Amin of the Said Court,

1. I was suspended for 2 weeks from 4th October 1877.

2. I executed a process twice. I, without producing the account (which was only a rough Copy) prepared first in the presence of the plaintiff, produced another and proper account prepared in the presence of Karnam. I was suspended for the offence of having not produced the account (Copy) prepared first.

3. I don't remember if it was written to the Dt Court, whether the suspension period was to be included along with the Service or not.

4. I pray that Copies of testimonials I have from my Superiors and which I have produced along with my former petition may be ordered to be sent along with the Service Register.
