I was entitled, 4th Extra Regiment, Madras Native Infantry from 1st May 1859 to 20th June 1859 on Rs 14 per mensem and drew pay as such during that period. I have no Contemporary witnesses to cite in support of this service except the discharge Certificate dated 20th June 1859, herewith filed.

2. I was peon on Rs 6 per mensem of the 42nd Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, during the period 1-5-51 to 30-4-59 & 1st to 31st March 1864 and drew pay as such during these periods. I have no Contemporary witnesses to cite in support of this service except the discharge discharge certificate dated 30th June 1864, herewith filed

3. I was from attached to the civil dispensary, Masulipatam during the period from 7th July 1864 to 11th July 1870 on Rs 6 per measem and drew pay as such during this period. I herewith filed the certificate dated 30th August 1870, given me by the then District Surgeon. My pay of the appointment was Rs 6 per month, and the District Surgeon used to pay me extra allowance of Rs 1 per month out of his own pocket. Hence I believe the increase of Rs 7 pay is entered in my Service registers, perhaps by mistake.

I have no other Contemporary witnesses except Mudaliar Rob Collector's Daffedar. I have not been paid any gratuity when discharged from any of the above appointments.

I know Dalapati Venkatachelum. I have known him for the last 26 years. He was a peon in District Surgeon's office. I think it was in 1870. His pay was only Rs 6 per month. I do not know Venkatachelum before 1870. I do not know what post he held prior to 1870. From that period he has been entertained as a peon in Collector's office. The post which he held in District Surgeon's office was a permanent post. Ever since I knew him as a peon in District Surgeon's office that is from the year 1870 he had no breaks in service. He might have taken leave now & then but I cannot swear to the nature and duration thereof.
