1. <sup>II</sup> Grade Head Constable No 120 Mangumathar of Bettangadi Station, Bettangadi Division.
2. Gross carelessness in holding an inquest.
3. A body was found at an out of the way place near Kavar on a rock in the dry bed of a rivet.
It was beyond recognition and was just held together by a few sinews. Near it were certain articles a snuff box, two coats, umbrella &c which were recognised as being the property of Shurbeth Varaina Rao. There were some Post office receipts bearing the name of Shurbeth Varaina From this it was concluded that it was body of Shurbeth Varaina. This man was known as a mischievous fellow all round Bettangadi and had many enemies. He was a petition writer and was always setting the villagers one ~~one~~ against another. This Head constable held the inquest on the body and although there was good reason to suspect foul play he held the inquest in a most grossly careless way. It was suggested that <sup>it</sup> was a case of suicide but why should such a place have be selected? It could hardly have be a case of sudden death. The body's its position appears to have been bro There and so placed as to attract attention It was found towards evening of one day by Dhurnappa Padvala who was collecting leaves in the jungle. He reported to the Sant Raja Perggade who put a gang of 4 men over it. Next morning he was by Degraji Jatti and went to the case

Inspector

just then this Head Constable and 2 constables were returning from holding the inquest. He went back with them to his home. They were going there to write the inquest report as it was raining a little. He remained with them until about noon. He and the others who were present while the inquest report was being made out touched the pen. The report was not read out to him. The things which have been found near the body were present. The papers were not read to them. There were no clothes with stains shown to them. He was asked for his opinion and said that he could give one. No order was given at the inquest to bury the remains. The body had been left where found, and as they were going to his hut to write the report he heard the Head Constable shout to the Ugrani to bury the body. He does not know whether the Head Constable had the consent of the Muktasars.

Moodaroo was one of the four who watched the body during the night. Next morning the Head Constable with 2 Constables, the Patil Santa Raja, Gouda, Joga and others came. They viewed the body from a distance of about 10 paces. He collected the clothes and held them up for inspection. The Head Constable said the papers belonged to Shurberk Naraina. He was present when the inquest report was written at the hut. It was not read out. He held the pen.

Santa Raja Patil of Navoor says that he had to see the corpse directly he heard of it wrote a report about lamp time to the local S.H.O. Police came about midnight. Pointed as panchayatdars next morning Gouda, Rama Gouda, Betijar Louza, Modra, Hookra and Chumamoo marched round about the corpse and found found clothes etc. He knew Shurberk Naraina very well. He had a very long top knot. It used to come down to his knees. No one alluded to it at the inquest. I did not see the Head Constable taking any notes, as Head Constable was about to write a report it began to rain. We adjourned to a hut two or three furlongs off. The Head Constable and one Constable sat in a hut. The Constable wrote the Head Constable dictated. The Muktasars sat under a tree except this witness who sat on the pial of a house. The report was not read to them. They touched the pen. Angara shown in the inquest report as having been present was not present. He signed another report next day. It was not read to him. When the report was finished (about mid-day) the Head Constable and the Constables accompanied witness to his home. There they showed the things found with the corpse to Patil Appa Shetty. He said that there are other things; a snuff box was Shurberk Naraina's. He alluded to the length of the top knot of Shurberk Naraina Rao and asked the Head Constable "Have you noticed that?" The Head Constable said "no". He ordered Kantoo to go and look for the tuft. Later on he heard some one in his house say that Kantoo had come with the tuft and that with the Head Constable he had gone on to another house that of Appa Shetty, where the acting Inspector was said to have just arrived. Witness afterwards went to Appa Shetty's house where the acting Inspector asked him all about the case. The Head Constable asked him to come tomorrow. Next day about noon he went. The acting Inspector

Inspector told him that having been to the spot he had noticed some purged matter. He told witness to go and see. Witness told him that he had not noticed any. Witness asked him about the tuft. This Head Constable said it had been brought, seen and buried. about eve and next day This Head Constable gave him a report to sign (the duplicate of the inquest report) saying that an embryo had been made in it saying that purged matter had been seen. He signed. Kantoo - one of those who watched the body all night said that he did not notice any purged matter near the corpse. Next morning he saw the Head Constable walk round the body. No lungotee was found. Before leaving the spot the Head Constable ordered the body to be buried. His opinion about the death was not taken nor that of any one else. A Constable wrote the report. The Head Constable dictated. A pen was thrown on the ground, he and others touched it. Nothing was read to them. The Head Constable asked some for an opinion. They said there was suspicion, that it is a wonderful thing that such a man should come to such a place to die. This was at midday. Before going away Head Constable ordered him to come to Navoor. About 3 he went and found Head Constable in Santa Raja's house. Head Constable told him to go and look for the Top Knot. He went taking Muddaroo with him. He found the Top Knot 2 or 3 paces from
found

from the stone on which the body had been. It was amongst some stones towards the head. It was not clearly visible unless closely searched for. Appoo Shetti supply Patant of Navoor said that when he was at Santa Raja's house at 5 P.M. on day of inquest Head Constable showed him a snuff box which he recognized as belonging to Shurbert Naraina. He asked the Head Constable if he had examined the tuft. He asked because the Head Constable had told him that there was nothing by which the body could be identified. Witness knew that Shurbert's tuft was long. Head Constable called for some one and ordered him to go to look for the tuft. Next morning the acting Inspector, This Head Constable and the Dresser left saying that they were going to the spot. They came back saying that there was purged matter and a lungotee. The day before the Hd Const. in the eve, ordered those who were at the inquest to come again. They came. The Hd Constable dictated and a Constable wrote. They said that it was an inquest report. Jathce, was present when the body was buried, heard Head Constable gave the order, saw a stick-passed under the body, noticed then there was not tuft on the head. Muddaroo buried the body. The bones just hung together saw no tuft, noticed its absence. Same afternoon Kantoo asked him to go to the spot with him. Went and saw Kantoo pick up the tuft. It was rolled up, was told to take it it away and put it in the grave with the corpse.

Head Constable says— I got to the spot on morning after receiving the report went close to the body within a yard. Did not go round it. I stood at the head. I did not search round the body.
No one searched round. I did not give anyone an order to search. There was some purged matter. There was a lungotee. I forgot to take it. I entered in my note book that I did not bring away the lungotee. I did not stop to see the things collected. The next day when the acting Inspector brought me to the place to see it again we found it. Until then I did not know that it had not been brought away. After viewing the body we concluded that it was the body of Shurbert. I knew him very well. I recognised the tuft. When I was looking at the corpse I observed it. It was very dirty. Through misunderstanding I did not secure the tuft for purpose of identification. I was satisfied by the navel on the Postal papers that the body was that of Shurbert. I ordered the body to be buried. I began the inquest report on the spot and then it began to rain.
We adjourned to the hut. A Constable wrote it because I write slowly. The Constable read the report to the Muktesars. I did not send off the report at once to the Magistrate. I did not prepare the duplicate because it was was not a convenient place to do so. I knew the order about completing the inquest report on the spot. I took it to Navood to the house of Santa Raja. I prepared the duplicate that night I wrote a portion and the Constable a portion. I did not finish the duplicate that eve. because the acting Inspector asked me why the body had not been sent to Hospital.

This made me "Ghaburah". The original was signed on the 26th. The duplicate on 27th at 8 a.m. and I took it to the Sub-Magistrate about 7 or 8 miles off at 4 or 5 on 28th. I had kept the inquest Report in my possession because I thought it my duty to take it in person. I did not offer it to the acting Inspector who came on the night of 27th. There are discrepancies between the inquest report and the duplicate. They were made while copying. I did not compare them. I was too confused because acting Inspt. had scolded me. I have not recorded the finding of the tuft anywhere. There is no record in the Crime Register of the inquest report having been dispatched to the Magistrate nor any mention in the Register of the sending of the articles. There is no mention in my note-book

note-book of having sent a man to find the tuft.

4. Superintendent enquired into this matter on the spot early in August. The case up to that time having been registered as only suspicious death. Inspector Shrinivasa for three months or so was on special duty about it, but failed to get any information on which action could be taken. The enquiry has shown that it was a murder. It was at first thought that this Head Constable was deep in the plot, but it has been satisfactorily shown that in this inquest he has been guilty of anything more than gross carelessness.

5. II grade Head Constable is reduced to I class Constable with effect from 1st January 1897. Nothing but his long service saves him from dismissal.
