In paras of G.O. 1073 Pension, the Govt. Agent, 7.11.96

Godavari was asked to submit a report as to the circumstances in which Dhadu Bee is situated & the desirability of giving her assistance. The Agent's report has just been received C.No.
204- and it says that the petitioner is 60 years old, unable to work for her livelihood & has been under the protection of her daughter & son-in-law, whose means are very limited, having been according to her own statement neglected by her 3 sons who are employed

- (1) as a sepoy in the 24th Regiment, Bangalore
- (2) as a Police Constable No 837, Penuganchiproti Station
- (3) as Taluk Peon, Venukonda.

In the circumstances of the case, the Agent & the Collector of Krishna to whom the Agent had to refer for information, both recommend that the allowance of the petitioner's late husband may be continued to her for life.

The Govt. of India in declining to modify art 791 (d) C.S.R. as suggested by this Govt. in letter No 1076 of 7.11.96, has stated that in any case in which the provisions of

G.O. 119 Pension
12.2.97
c. 13/3/97 R.C. 17/3/97 R.C. 20/3/97
R. 16/3/97 R. 19/3/97 R. 22/3/97 R. 25/3/97 of the article in question are found to bear hardly, it is open to the local Govt. to refer the case to the Govt. of India who will be prepared to consider it on its merits."

Orders are solicited as to whether the Govt. of India should be addressed in the present case, or whether the Govt. with propriety to the widow without reference to the Govt. of India with reference to the Hon. Member's remarks in the note for orders under No. 1073 - flagged C. 7-11-96

11.3.97 a gratuity can be granted in the Financial Dept without ref to the Govt. of India

13/3/97

I think we shd give a gratuity of Rs 50.

15/3/97
This might be given as a temporary assistance, but I should prefer to continue small pension (say Rs 2 p.m.) to the old woman -

16/3/97
This will need the sanction of the Govt. of India.

17/3/97
I should prefer a pension, too, but we have no power to grant "periodical payments running into future dates". I wd consent to a low gratuity but am afraid it would soon be taken from the old woman. Perhaps we might give her Rs 100.

18/3/97

Why not address India. Then I wd be able to deal case over. Can always give the gratuity.

25/3/97
Write so - give the Rs 50 for the present + then address India. That is what I meant.

Very well go 25/3/97

The Secretary to the Govt. of India Dept: of Fin^{ce} & Commerce

Sir,

With reference to para 3 of the Govt. of India letter No 324 P dt 22-1-97, Fin^{ce} & Com^{ce} Dept, I am directed to submit, for the favourable consideration of

of the Govt. of India, the accompanying applications from one Dhadu Bee, widow of Ramzan Beg praying for the continuance to her of the extraordinary pension granted to her late husband.

2. The facts of the case are as follows:-

In June 1879 one Hussain Beg, who was a 3rd class Police Constable of the Kistna Police Force was killed in the execution of his duty ^{during} in the Rampa disturbances. On his death, his father Ramzan Beg was granted an extraordinary family pension of Rs 2-12-0 per mensem, under Section 135 (a) of the Civil Pension Code & with reference to the letter from the Govt. of India No 338 dt 24-1-80.

Ramzan Beg died on the 10th

June 1896, & the pension enjoyed by him consequently lapsed to Govt under the provisions of clause (d) of

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read

of art: 791 of the C.S.R. Dhadu Bee, ^{his} the widow of ~~Ramzan Beg~~ now asks that the pension may be continued in her name. ~~She~~ It is reported that she is 60 years old & unable to work for her livelihood, and ^{that she} has been under the protection of her daughter and son-in-law whose means are very limited. She herself states that she has been neglected by her 3 sons who are employed elsewhere,

(1) as a sepoy in the 26th Regt M.I. Bangalore (2) as a Police Constable Penanganchipproba Station, Kistna District, & (3) as a Taluk peon, Vinukonda, respectively.

3. In view of her destitute circumstances & the fact that the pension was primarily granted for her support as much as that of her deceased husband, I am directed to commend the case to the favourable considerations of the Govt of India and to request that as a special case the widow may be granted an Extraordinary pension of Rs 2/- per mensem until her death.

Madras.

Sir,

In resubmitting herewith the petition from Dadhee Bee widow of Ramzan Beg of Guntur received with G.O d/7/11/96 No 1073 Pension Department; I have the honor to report as follows in regard to the circumstances of the petitioner and the desirability of giving her assistance.

2 - As no information at all could be obtained on the subject from my Treasury Department; I had to write to the Collector of Kistna. He now replies to me to the effect that the petitioner is 60 years old, unable to work for her livelihood & has been under the protection of her daughter and son-in-law whose whose means are very limited having been according to her own statement neglected by her 3 sons who are employed (1) as a sepoy in the 24th Regiment Bangalore, (2) as Police constable No 837 Pennamachiprolu station, (3) as Taluk from Vinnikonda. He adds thus, "Looking to the widows" Circumstances it stands to reason that if her husband was granted a compassionate allowance on the death of one of his sons in the Rampa rebellion, she also deserves similar consideration on her husband's death."

3. In the circumstances, I agree with the Collector of Kistna and recommend that the allowance of Petitioner's husband may be continued to her for life.
