case, H. C. the Governor in Council is pleased to condone under art. 465 A of the C.S.R. the deficiency of 123 days of the petitioner's service required to bring him up to 23 years, and accordingly the pension of Rs 4-6-4 p.m. granted to him in the G.O. read above will now be increased to Rs 4-9-7 with effect from the 21st Jan^y 1897.

Note

Please see the applicant's petition. If the 3 months' private affairs leave enjoyed by him in 1890 be now converted into privilege leave to which he was eligible at the time, he will have a qualifying service of 23 years entitling him to a pension of Rs 4-9-7 against Rs 4-6-4 already granted. Also if the deficiency of 3 months required to bring his service up to 23 years be condoned under art. 465 A(1) C.S.R. he will be eligible for the pension of Rs 4-9-7 asked for. Orders solicited as to whether he should have the benefit of art. 465 A. or have the private affairs leave commuted into privilege leave.

At 26.2.97 benefit of 465 A. as the Dist. Judge reports that the petitioner's statements cannot be verified. There may have been reasons for refusing him privilege leave at the time.
