Affidavit given by A Swami Mutti, 1st class Vaccinator on 14-11-86.

Having entered the Vaccination department on 1st April 1862, I served as Vaccinator for sometime in Salem District and for some time in Tinnevelly District. But, in the meanwhile, I received an order in September 1869 to the effect that I was transferred to Kistna District. Soon after the receipt of the order, I handed over charge on 8th September and started for Madras where I appeared before General Shortt Esquire, Superintendent of Vaccination Madras Presidency, who instructed me to go to Masulipatam in the steamer called "Punjab" which starts to the same place on 5th October & granted me a passport. I started accordingly & reached Masulipatam on
3 6th October. With the intention of joining my duties here, I enquired where the Vaccination staff was, but was told that they were in Bezwada. So I started to that place & was again told that they were in Guntur. So I had recourse to go to Guntur where I was again told that they were in Vinukonda. So I went to Vinukonda, where I was again told that the Establishment had gone to Krosur in Sattenapalli Taluk. So I went there and was again told that they had gone to Amaravati. So I went there and joined my duties on the 21st October 1869 and thereported the matters to the Superintendent Kistna Circle & receiving my pay for both the months of September & October. During this period, there is no break in my service. I had been in service from 1st September 1869 to 20th October 1869.
