1. 3rd Grade Head Constable No 183 Muniswamy Naide of Pannachala, Nandikotkur Division.
 2. Neglect of duty in connection with a murder case.
 3. This Head Constable on 31st December 1893, searched the house of one of the accused persons named Rajah of Bannur in a murder case but failed to enter in the search list the most important fact that the cloths stained with blood were found in a bamboo box among clean cloths. This omission was noticed by the Sessions Judge in disposing of the Murder Case vide his remarks in para 6 of his judgment in Session Case No. 11 of 1894. This Head Constable in his explanation states that the Sheristadar Magistrate ordered the search of the house and had the search list prepared by the Khamam and that he is not responsible for the omission. His explanation is very unsatisfactory. It is he who has signed the Search list & not the Sub Magistrate. It was his duty to see that all the important facts should be mentioned in the Search list and has neglected to comply with clauses "h" and "i" of Police Order 140:—

Order on appeal petition N. 19 of 1895

1. Read appeal petition dated 26th January 1895, of 3rd Grade Head Constable N. 183 Munniswamy Chaidu of Kurumb District appealing against his reduction for 6 months by the Superintendent of Police Kurumb District.
2. Read copy of Minute and Extract from Defaulter's Register.
3. Endorsement by the Deputy Inspector General of Police, Central Range N. 19 of 18.2.95
4. The reply of the Superintendent of Police N. 312 dated 7.3.95.

Appellant has delayed disposal of this appeal by making deliberately false statements in his petition to the undersigned. On reference to the Superintendent it is made clear that he was present at the search and that he in fact conducted it under the orders of the Magistrate. He got the Kurnam to write out the search lists in duplicate and signed both of them. He is thus responsible for their contents - and is in no way justified in attempting to shift the blame on to the Magistrate. He was downright careless careless in preparation of the search list, and had he been reduced permanently to 4th grade by Superior Accident, I would have confirmed this punishment.

The order of reduction for 6 months will stand.
