Sir,

With reference to your Proceedings No. 339 dated the 5th instant, regarding the pension application of B. Appalanarasayya 3rd clerk of this Court, I beg to resubmit the same supplying the omissions pointed out as shown below:-

1. The old Service Register of the applicant is herewith submitted.

2. The applicant is made to sign the entries bearing the marginally noted dates.

18-6-62 }
13-12-62 }
1-11-84 }

3. In column 11 of the Service Register it is now stated that the services of the applicant were dispensed with, as he has applied for Superannuation pension.

4. In the 2nd page of the pension application the total of inferior service is now given in red ink.

5. The spelling of the applicant's name as well as that of his father's are now corrected in red ink so that it may be uniform throughout.

6. Three fresh affidavits, one from the applicant and two from two of his contemporary clerks are now submitted to show that the applicant was in permanent employ during the period for which no other records are available for verification of his service. The 3rd contemporary whose affidavit was submitted with the application is not now alive.

7. In places where it was shown that the applicant held the Sub pro tem acting appointment, his permanent appointment is now given in the remark column of the 2nd page opposite to the respective items.

8. It is true that several entries were attested by a single signature by the previous Heads of this office, but as the said signatures were written across in such a manner as to extend to all the items intended to be covered thereby and as the services were duly verified from time to time subsequently, I submit that the signatures in question may be taken as sufficient.

9. The reasons for exclusion of service is given in red ink in the remark column of the 2nd page.
