Note ~~for the Under Secretary~~

With reference to H.M.'s remark about the painter's service counting for pension, please see para 4 of the Collector's letter flagged A, and para 2 of the Acctt. Genl's letter flagged B.

The Acctt. Genl. says "No sanction exists for the appointment of a temporary painter. The wages of the painter were from time to time drawn in the contingent bills of the Govt Botanical Gardens and admitted against the grant for labelling on the understanding that they represented payments for job-work. As it now appears that his services were regularly engaged on a fixed rate of pay, sanction of Govt. to the appointment was necessary, & his pay should have been drawn on an Establishment Bill and charged to Temporary Establishment & not to Contingencies. Formal sanction of Govt. will be necessary if it is decided to retain the present painter as a member of the temporary establishment. I note that the appointment will cease on the present incumbent being provided with the appointment of Overseer as recommended by the Collector."

If the appointment be declared temporary, the service will not, under art. 403 C.S.R., count for pension.

Attention is also invited to art. 405 of the C.S.R.

this case various hands were Employed in the museum & paid as if for ~~job~~ jobwork.

 Some of them were from time to time brought on the Permanent Establishment until it was finally decided that what establishment was necessary for the Museum. As remarks in the letter to India para 6 "It is clear that it was intended from the first that the necessary attendants of the Museum should be sanctioned, as the Museum Establishment, though the difficulty of deciding, when the Museum was started, what attendants would ultimately be found necessary & what they should be paid, prevented any establishment from being sanctioned."

In the present case, the such doubt existed & the sanction to the permanent post of painter was not being delayed by any such considerations. Govt knew nothing at all about the painter & he has been retained & his post made a temporary one chiefly out of consideration & because he is a good & an over-see man.

Submit he cannot count his past service as painter for pension how can he count his present temporary service unless he is confirmed as an over-see without break 12/5/97
 Further submit that to treat past service in this case as pensionable will create a bad precedent as it is clear that all the artists in the galleries are paid monthly from London.
