OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS, MADRAS,

Dated Ootacamund the 19th April 1897.

From

A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A., I.C.S.,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS, MADRAS,

To

The Accountant-General,

Fort Saint George, Madras.

SIR,

I have the honour to forward herewith an Enclosure. Pension application for Invalid Gratuity on behalf of Kaiser

1. Service Book.
2. Memo showing leave taken.

Singh late Duffadar of my office, with the marginally noted papers, and to request that you will be so good as to have it verified and submitted for the orders of Government.

2. It will be observed from the Service Book that the applicant was dismissed the service from the 15th December 1880. As he was dismissed for no other reason than that he overstayed his leave and as the fact has been recorded in the Service Book, there is no correspondence on the subject. It will be observed also that on account of his overstay there is an interruption in the applicant's service from 15th December 1880 to 11th May 1881 covering a period of 4 months and 27 days. This interruption cannot, under Arts: 463 (b) & 464 Civil Service Regulations be commuted into leave without allowances, as it appears that the appointment of the applicant on dismissal was substantially filled. There is no other way of making good the interruption and I request that the Government will be pleased to condone it under Art:46F (b) Civil Service Regulations. Kaisar Singh is a fit subject for the concession and will, if the period is condoned, receive a larger amount of gratuity (6 months' pay) than he would otherwise do (5 months' pay).

3. From the Acquittance Roll and connected records it appears that leave on loss of pay was granted to the applicant in May 1883, June 1887 and August 1891. The several periods of leave taken have been entered on the 2nd page of the Gratuity application although it is not understood why they were omitted to be recorded in the Service Book.

4. On the opening page of the Service Book, the applicant's age on 23rd January 1877 is shown to have been 47 years and 23 days; but it should not be inferred from this that the exact date of birth of the applicant is known. In the column date of birth and in the several Annual Returns of Establishment only the year of birth has been noted. The exact date of birth cannot be ascertained. The height of the applicant on entertainment has not been noted.

5. In the Service Book it is noted that sick leave was granted on substitute for one month from 15th November to 14th December 1880, but a reference to the Acquittance Roll shows that the applicant availed himself of the leave from the 18th November 1880. The correct date has been adopted in the application.

6. The Annual Returns of Establishment for the years 1878 to 1896 which are on record and which were consulted disclose the following omissions and mistakes.

(1). In the Return for 1886, the date of promotion to present pay Rs. 12 is shown as 13th February 1883 instead of 22nd September 1884.

(2). Leave on loss of pay granted to the applicant in 1883, 87, 88, 91 & 92 has not been shown in the several Annual Returns relating to those years.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sy Cardew
