The Collector requests reference to para 6 of his letter[×] Govt. regarding the conduct of the applicant in a orture case in which he was concerned – disposed of n G.O. 621 d/30-4-97 Jud^l. – Para 6 runs as follows:–

I am not, however, inclined to think that the Sub-agistrate took any part in concocting evidence or any idea that the complainants had not real cause for plaint. He is an old man of nearly 30 years' service and unlikely to risk, by such gross misconduct as abetting laying of false criminal charges, the forfeiture of his pension hich he has since applied. From what I have seen of I should say that, if he did advise the 2 men to complain, l so without any bad motive, & I would therefore suggest he may be permitted to retire on such pension as may be pleased to grant him."

His record has been continuously bad. For orders as to the amount of reduction to be effected.

Extract from an order passed by E. Gilson Esquire

Speaking generally the Deputy Tahsildar took up a very proper position from the ~~first~~ in Exacting a definite task from Famine Coolies and it is much to be regretted that the Tahsildar should have given orders which weakened his position. Had the Dy Tahsildar been supported, it cannot be doubted but that much Expenditure would have been saved.

24th March 1877

For upwards of a year R. Lakshminarsu has worked under me as Dy Tahsildar of Atmakur in Connection with Famine Relief operations. I have much pleasure in stating that he has shown much energy and descretion in the manner in which he has performed his duties. I have been entirely satisfied with his Conduct

Proceedings of the Board of the Revenue dated 31st March ~~1878~~ 1879

Read the following letter from A.L. Lister Esq Acting Collector of Kurnool, to J Sturrock Esq Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chinna Tekur, 5th March 1879, No. 65:—

I have the honor to forward for the orders of the Board a letter (to be returned with enclosures) from the Temporary Deputy Collector, bringing to notice that R. Lakshminarasu Puntulu, the Acting Town Sub-Magistrate of Kurnool, has been raising subscriptions for the building of a Choultry in contravention of Standing order No. 276.

2 I have personally examined the Sub-Magistrate and the facts appear to be as follows:— Lakshminarasu Puntulu is Sub-Magistrate of Atmakur, in the [illegible]dikotukur Taluq, and last year he commenced to build a Choultry there, on which between five and six hundred Rupees were spent before the rains. He avers that his mother, who lives with him, contributed Rs. 400 of this money and that he gave Rs. 150 himself.

3 He wrote to all the Tahsildars and Deputy Tahsildars ~~soliciting~~ soliciting subscriptions with the result of receiving a promise of Rs 18 or 20 from the Deputy Tahsildar of Owk, which however has not been redeemed.

4 Work came to a stand-still for lack of Funds, and in the 13th December Lakshminarasu Puntulu came to Kurnool to act as Town Sub-Magistrate.

5 On a Sunday in January there was a gathering in the house of Venkatanursiah, a Vakil of the District Court of Kurnool; different merchants were called thither the Sub-Magistrate was present, and a subscription list was circulated with considerable success.

HEAD ASSISTANT COLLECTOR
13 MAR 94
KURNOOL

Read letter from C. M. Mullaly Esquire Ag. Collector of Kurnool, dated 18th Decem 1893, Current No: 2266/ver—

Resolution:—

The letter read above in which the Collector of Kurnool proposes for reasons stated below the reduction of Mr. Rby R. Lakshminarasu Pantulu, Tahsildar of Cumbum, to the post of Dy Tahsildar of Kalou, will be submitted to Govt for orders—

2. At the Jumabandi of the Taluk for fasli 1302, which was commenced so late as 13th May 1893, the accounts were found not ready; cases for transfer of registry by succession and and darkasts were undisposed of and Signs of discontent were shewn by the number of petitions received. As the inspection proceeded, it was found that Confusion and disorder prevailed in Every branch of the office.

(a) The Jamabandi accounts were in great Confusion. those of Giddalur and Sanjakota having been Submitted only on 7th August 1893, when they were found to be incomplete and unaccompanied by Nos: 14, 15, and 16; and out of the 24 B Registers remaining incomplete 19 were submitted on the above date. two were afterwards written up in the Collector's office and three were Still unprepared. at the date of the Collector's Proceedings dated 11th September 1893.

(b) The arrears of the Taluk

Taluk have all along been the heaviest in the District and Treasury cash accounts were in disorder; the demand was not fixed in accordance with the Collector's Standing Order. and consequently the balance fluctuated and called for frequent censures in weekly and monthly reviews. An instance of this is quoted in para 4 of the Collector's Proceedings dated 11th December 1893.

(c) The income-tax assessments for 1892-93 were enhanced most recklessly and without any record of Enquiry or any attempt to distinguish and value the various sources of income and the assessments of the Current year, were not fixed till the End of July 1893.

(d) The records of loans were the worst in the District; and though advances amounting to Rs 46461-10-5 had been been made, the wells, none of which had been completed up to the end of July last, had not been properly inspected; and information as to their condition had to be collected from the Karnams at the Jumabandi. Out of 310 wells for which advances had been made, 260 were said to be under construction, but in most of them the work was unsatisfactory; while the rest had not been commenced at all.

(e) The several reports and returns due from this taluk were either not received at all or received very late and were then found to be full of mistakes, which necessitated their return for correction, thus delaying the submission of the Huzur returns.

(f) The office Registers

Registers and records were foun
be in great disorder, the state of the "Received" and "Despatched" regist being very discreditable.

(g) As regards minor Irrigation works, nothing was spent during 1892-93 and the whole allotment for the year was allowed to lapse, although it amounted only to Rs 400.

(h) The allotments under Village Service and Pound Funds were also allowed to lapse entirely, and no check appears to have been exercised by the Tahsildar over Pound collections and over the issue of forms. The Village officials were kept out of their pay for months together, Rs 7054 remaining unpaid at the end of April 93 and no reason being assigned for keeping back so large a

(i) As regards Abkari irregularities existed in the issue of transfer permits for toddy, some being signed blanks. In one case a delay of ~~some~~ seven months was allowed to occur in the delivery to the licensee of a toddy shop license which was despatched from the Divisional office on 10th December 1892

3. An examination of the magisterial work of the taluk shows Mr. P.B. Lakshminarasu Pantulu to be an indifferent magistrate. A few instances are given below:—

(a) Calendar case no: 129 of 1893 which was one of rioting and house trespass, had to be remanded for further enquiry, as there had been no proper trial in the first instance—

(b) Calendar cases nos: 125 &

and 127 of 1893 were fixed for 19th and 24th April respectively; there was nothing on record to show what was done on those days, although both cases were dismissed for default on the 26th idem. The stamps in these and in eight other cases were also left unpunched—

(c) In calendar cases nos: 76 and 117 of 1893, under Section 323. I.P.C the sentences passed (3 months rigorous imprisonment in each) were very inadequate seeing that in the former the accused had caused death by a blow dealt with a bamboo and in the latter the accused, a powerful man had killed his sister by a single blow—

(d) Lastly the Taluk magistrate's work was very much in arrears; no less than than 59 cases remaining pending on his file on 27th July 1893, in consequence of which 48 cases had to be withdrawn from him by the Deputy Magistrate under the District Magistrate's orders and a few transferred to the Sheristadar magistrate of Markapur. There was also great delay in disposing of some of the Forest cases, in 9 of which there was a delay of six months and more and in 3 of over five months.

4. In addition to these irregularities the Tahsildar's conduct is described by the Deputy Collector M. R. Ry. V. Jagannatha Row as "not only arbitrary & high-handed but also opposed to the interests of the Public Service" and he is said to be sadly wanting in tact. The Treasury Deputy Collector also attributed the confusion in the Taluk accounts to want of supervision on the part of the Tahr.

5. While his work was being scrutinized, the Tahr sent a telegram to the Collector praying either to be transferred to Sirvel Taluk or to be appointed as Stationary Sub Magistrate of Patticoonda. The Collector wishing to give him a further chance, directed him to continue in Cumbum and restore order, but this further trial was to no purpose, and the Tahsildar was found to be unequal to the work.

6. In view of the charges set forth in paras 2 & 3 supra and of the remarks quoted in para 4, the Collector called on the Tahr Tahr to show cause why he should not be reduced. The Tahr in his petition dated 18th December 1893 confirms a statement made orally to the Collector on the same day and expresses his willingness to abide by any decision that should be passed in his case. This could only be construed as a full admission of the several charges brought against him and the Collector considering him to be unfit to be the head of a taluk proposes to reduce him to the post of Deputy Tahsildar of Kalva. The Board agrees with the Collector and requests the sanction of Govt to the proposed reduction as it involves a degradation in rank.

7. On receipt of the the sanction of Government to the above proposal, the Board will pass orders regarding the arrangements proposed by the Collector in para 3 of the letter read above.

kind had been said. I repeated the very words used by the defendant to him but he would not translate them; ~~I then~~ his manner at the time was impudent.

I then told him to go away and send the 2d clerk. He then informed me that the second clerk had not arrived, + I proceeded to give (not legible account how this happened.

I told him I discovered a word he said

I sent for the 3d clerk who at once translated all about the note.

Here in addition to inaccurate translation there was impudence and an evident intent to mislead me as to what really was in order to avoid being detected in

([illegible] is torn in the original: not legible)

The Head Clerk must have known perfectly well that he was not translating correctly and I think that a person who can translate inaccurately a statement which law requires and which he knows it requires to be accurately recorded is clearly unfit to be the Head Clerk in any magistrate's office or in any position of responsibility whatever.

I suspended the man for 3 months on the ~~spot~~ spot ~~lettering~~ telling him that I did so as I thought him to be impudent and untruthful but subsequently found I had not the power to do so and I cancel the order.

I enclose a petition presented by him in which he ~~assures~~ that I accused him of untruth as I did not believe the explanation he gave of the non-arrival of the 2d clerk at Gualcherum. I look upon this production as a further piece of impertinence as the petitioner perfectly well knew the real reason of my accusation.

I have had to give this man on 2 or 3 occasions. He has also been reprimanded for gratuitous impertinence to your Head Clerk Sitapathy Row.

CIVIL MEDICAL FORM No. 32.

(Certificate for retirement on invalid pension or gratuity.)

CERTIFIED that I have carefully examined Rewanoor Lakshminarasu pantulu, son of Rewanoor Narasinga Rau, a Stationary Sub Magistrate in the Revenue Department.

His age is by his own statement 51 years and by appearance about 60 years.

I consider R. Lakshminarasu pantulu. to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind or in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of Malarial Cachexia

His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Proceedings of the Collector of Cuddapah
No. 499 of 1871 dated 4 July 1871

Order

The Head Assistant Collector Complains that his Head Clerk when found fault with for not interpreting correctly the statement of a defendant in a Case persisted in an unseemly manner that his interpretation was correct. The Head Clerk was ordered to leave the room, and another clerk being called in a correct translation in English of what the defendant said was obtained.

2. The Head clerk has filed a petition and an explanation called for by the Sub Collector. The former is simply a denial that he was impertinent and the Head clerk farther maintains that his interpretation was correct. In his explanation the Head clerk says nothing to the point except an apology for what he says was after all not intentional impertinence but mere mannerisms

PENSION DEPARTMENT.
No. 14
C No 399

The head clerk R Lachminarayan has not made matters one whit better by his petition or explanation. The fact is he knew his interpretation was incorrect. An admission that he was wrong was too much for him and he obstinately and impertinently maintained that he was right in the face of his superior officer who had told him he was not right.

4. R Lachminarayan's best excuse is his youth. He is impressed over much with a sense of his own importance and a slight punishment will no doubt teach him to behave better in future. He is suspended for one month from this date, when he returns to duty employment will if possible be found for him in a post other than that which he now holds.
