(50) Saminathan

I know Francis who was warden of the Tail - my acquaintance with him dates from the time when we were both sepoy's in the 20th ~~regt~~ battalioⁿ before he became a warden of the Tail - We were both pensioned from that Regiment - Francis was pensioned first and then I. Francis died on the 4th of April this year. He has left three sons and three daughters who are all living together

My husband Francis who was warden of the Jail died on the 4th April 97. Before he became warden

he was in the 20th Regiment from which he was discharged on a pension of Rs 4 a month. I am the legal claimant to the gratuity and request that it may be granted to me.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS, MADRAS,

Dated Palamcottah the 24th May 1897.

From

A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A., I.C.S.,

Inspector-General of Prisons, Madras,

To

THE Accountant General,

Fort Saint George.

SIR,

Enclosure.

I have the honour to forward herewith, countersigned, an application for gratuity on behalf of Francis, late acting 2nd Class Warder of the Dt jail, Bellary with his Service Book and to request that you will be so good as to have it verified and submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The applicant's age which had originally been entered as 'unknown' in the 1st page of the Service register has been altered into 1st July 1836 to correspond with the estimated age recorded in the 2nd page of the Service Book.

3. The

3. The applicants' name has been entered in the Service Book as Francis, while in the application it has been stated as B. Francis.

The Superintendent explains that the letter B was prefixed to his name in order to distinguish him from another warder of the same name in the jail. He states also that the full name entered in the annual returns of Establishment is B. Francis.

4. It will be observed that the applicant was entertained in the Jail Department after 1st April 1880 and after he completed his fortieth year and that he was at the time of entertainment in receipt of a military pension of Rs 4 per mensem. With reference to the note to article 392 Civil Service Regulations it has been ascertained that he was discharged from the Army as being unfit for further service.

5. As the applicant died on the 4th April 1897, the Superintendent reports that his wife Prakasamma is the proper person to receive any gratuity if sanctioned. Her affidavit and those of her son and of one of her husband's acquaintances, with their translations, are herewith forwarded.

6. The delay in the transmission of the of the gratuity application was due to its having had to be returned to the Superintendent for correction and for further information.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

A. G. Cardew
Inspector General of Prisons.
