In G. O. No. 540 Pension d./

1st July 1896, Pensioned Constable Shaik

Hyder's reemployment as a temporary forest watcher in the ghaut ^{mayne} of Hannar was sanctioned on the ground that he was the best only good man the District Forest Officer could get for the post. The man drew his pension and pay as Forest-watcher up to 31st December 1896, when the Accountant ^{Genl} seems to have objected to his being employed as Forest Watcher, and his pension was withheld from 1st January 1897. The Collector now requests the sanction of Government for the man's further employment, and the Board supports the Collector's request. The Accountant General points out that the period for which the man's reemployment is to last was not fixed by Government in the G. O. quoted above, and says that under article 579 C.S.R., he cannot be reemployed for more than a year under the sanction of this Government, and no extension beyond the period of one year is permissible.

As the individual in question is a superannuation pensioner, the Accountant General seems to be technically correct. Orders are solicited.

At this temporary Forest Est. to be done away with it is not worth while addressing India. If this watchman's post brought on the permanent est. Art. 579 would apply but 575 will the Govt. reports that it is unable to accept the Board's recommendation. The re-employment of the superannuated Hyder as a temporary Forest pensioner in question cannot be sanctioned by the Local Govt for more than one year (Art 579 C.S.R.) and there is no sufficient reason for addressing the Govt of India on the subject.

SUBJECT.
Submitting for the orders of Govt. the Accountant General, with the Board's recommendation letter from the S.M. of South Canara, requesting sanction for the re-employment of Pensioned Head Constable (Police) Sheikh as a temporary Forest Watcher in South Canara.

Resolution

Submitted for the orders of Government through the Accountant General.

- In G.O. No. 540 Pension Department dated 1-7-96, Government sanctioned the re-employment of Himsur Shikhyer, a pensioned Head Constable, as a temporary Forestwatcher in South Canara. No period has been fixed for which his employment is to last. But the Accountant General appears to have objected is being employed after the 31st December of required that the sanction of Government should be obtained for his further employment. the meantime, his pension has been withheld from the 1st January 1897.

As pointed out by the Collector, the appointment in which Sheikh Hyder is employed being ^{only} temporary under A. Conservancy and Works, his services can be dispensed with at any moment if he is found unfit for work. The Board therefore supports the Collector's request that Government may be pleased to sanction his re-employment as long as he is found fit to work.

Submitted. The period for which Sheikh Hyder's re-employment is to last was not fixed by Government in its order No 540 Pension Department dated 1 July 1896 but Article 579 of Civil Service Regulations lays down that he cannot be re-employed for more than a year under the sanction of the Local Government and this fact was mentioned by this office in reporting upon the case. No extension beyond the period of one year is permissible.
