4th Grade Head Constable no 341 is reduced to 1st class Constable for making unjustifiable arrests, for making a false accusation to justify these arrests and for gross delay in reporting a case of forcible rescue to his superior.

Signed / Fr. Kilgour Major

Minute

On 21st December last, 4th Grade Head Constable no 341 of Saligramam Station Tiruvadurai Division, received from the Magistrate of Tiruvadurai an order to take to hospital one Noyana Muhammad of Vionanur village it having been reported to the Magistrate that Noyana Muhammad had been assaulted and injured.

That evening the Head Constable arrived at Vionanur the next day, a bandy was procured by the village Magistrate to take Noyana Muhammad to Hospital, but when Noyana Muhammad was being placed in the bandy, Muthana Kone, Chockalinga Kone, Sathappan and Ramaw objected to the bandy being used to take away Noyana Muhammad, the Head Constable persisted in taking the bandy, the Police were obstructed, arrests were made by the Police, there was a forcible rescue of the man arrested, there was open defiance of Police Authority, the head Constable states that the prisoners were rescued at 6.30 P.M. on the 22nd.

The Head Constable returned to his station the following morning and that day wrote his station

Station report of the 22nd detailing for the first time these occurrences, in order to justify himself for making these arrests he reported that Chockalingam had attempted to commit suicide by choking himself that he had tied Chockalingam's hands behind his back to prevent this, I cannot credit the Head Constable's statement regarding Chockalingam. The Head Constable has behaved in a most indiscreet manner throughout this case, he had no right to persist in the seizure of this bandy, the arrests made were unjustifiable and the reason given to justify this arrest is absurd and incredible. The Head Constable delayed greatly in reporting this serious occurrence to his Superior instead of sending a report at once from the village which would have reached his Superior early on the morning of the 23rd, no intimation was received by Superior till the 25th.

The Head Constable is evidently unfit to have charge of a station. I therefore reduce and remove him.

Defaulter Order No. 130 of 1888.

1st Class and Acting Head Constable
No. 341. Appavoo Pillai of Thagalgudi Station,
Kth Division.

Charge: - Having submitted a Charge Sheet in Case No. 5-7 of 1888 under Sections 451, 380 I. P. C. upon insufficient evidence and before he had examined the accused. Is strongly suspected of having been influenced in his procedure. Reduced to 2nd Class Constable.

On 13-7-88 the City Head Constable of Thagalgudi received a petition from the Mudukolatur Sub. Magistrate, endorsed for enquiry and report under Section 451. I.P.C.

In this case the Complainant alleges that 5 men unlawfully entered his house and carried off some bags of gum. The 5th accused had the contract for collecting gum in the vicinity of the Complainant's village and it is customary for the villagers to pick the gum store it in their house - or other place of safe custody until called upon to produce it by the Contractor - when they were paid for the amount collected. Complainant had been in the habit of earning money in this way.

1st defendant is a Zamin Revenue Officer and stated that the contract for Collecting,

(Collecting gun near Sharakudi (Complainant's village) expired in June last and orders had been issued that no more gun was to be picked by the villagers. He subsequently heard that the complainant had picked a considerable quantity and had stored it in his house, he therefore sent his men to recover it and to produce the complainant before him this was done and the matter reported to his Superiors. The complainant on the other hand asserts that he was told to pick gun and promised payment as usual that he had done so and that it had been taken from him without any payment being made in spite of his objections:—

The Ag. Head Constable examined Complainant for the first time on 16th July, on the 19th he sent in a Charge sheet on the evidence of 5 witnesses and asked for warrants without having taken a word of explanation from the accused, who were at the time supposed to have gone to Ramnad.

On 23rd the Charge sheet was returned by the Magistrate with reply that no warrants would be issued.

On 26th four of the accused were arrested and examined by the Station House Officer at the Station when the 1st accused related what I have above recorded, the 3rd corroborated his statement, 4th and 5th alleged entire ignorance of the whole transaction, the 2nd defendant had not,

not been found.

27. Prisoners were charged - with - Section 380 added by the Head Constable to Section 451.

The Magistrate discharged the case - under Section 258 C.P.C.

The Ag. Head Constable's procedure in submitting a Charge sheet applying for warrants to be issued for the arrest of the accused persons, raises the supposition that he knew he was doing wrong, and therefore thought to shift a deal of responsibility from his own shoulders to those of the Magistrate - by obtaining warrants of Arrest.

The most charitable light in which this case can be looked upon is that the Complainant was entitled to receive "Cooly" for the gun he had collected, and that it had been taken from his house, without payment but this does not constitute an offence under Section - 451. 380. The Ag. Head Constable might have been excused on the plea of honest intentions brought to failure by ignorance of Codes; had he but taken the trouble to follow and examine the accused; or even await their return.

This Ag. Head Constable has before been reduced upon a similar Charge.

S

I can see no excuse for his conduct and have grave suspicions he was not altogether uninfluenced in his procedure and therefore recommend his reduction to his 2nd Class Station from his present grade of 1st Class Constable
