Declaration

My name is Soobraya Pillay and my father's Samu Pillay I am a native of Kumbakonam I am 55 years old I am both a Meerasidar & merchant I live in Kaihattinaram Street in Kumbakonam Veera Pillay is also a native of Kumbakonam and he is residing in the same street I know Veera Pillay from his enter=tainment in 1874 in the Kumbakonam Post Office as Rural Messenger on a salary of Rs 6/8 per mensem and in that capacity he served here for about one year continuously and thence he was transferred to Tiripanandal in 1875 —

At the beginning of the year 1875, Veera Pillay asked me to lend him Rs 10/- on a Promissory Note to clear some of his debts prior to his going to Tiripanandal to which place he was transferred from Kumbakonam Since the lender pressed & troubled him much to liquidate his debt so I obliged him & recovered the amount

amount from him in instalments subsequent to his going to Tirupanan =dal. From this pecuniary transaction I come to understand the exact year he was serving at Kumbakona Post Office & was transferred to Tirupa =nandal. I am able to particula =rize the year 1874 not only from the fact of the loan but more distinctly still since in that year Veeraa Pillay who was helping me till then in my paddy trade left me and I had to continue my business at much inconvenience and loss.
He was then an active man 5 years older than myself. I returned the pronote as soon as I recovered the amount from him. As it was a small matter not included in my trade it did not find a place in my account books. To my knowledge he was never suspended or degraded for any misconduct. I do not know how long he was absent on leave. I gain nothing by his getting a pension or gratuity.

SIR,

In continuation of this office letter No.2375 dated 26th April 1897 forwarding an application for superannuation pension in half of S.Veera Pillay, District Post Village Postman, Tiruvadamarudur, I beg to state that from the Superintendent's report it appears that the delay in the submission of the case was chiefly due to the difficulty experienced in establishing the applicant's earlier service from the 14th February 1874 to the 31st January 1879. The order directing the applicant's retirement with effect from the 9th March 1897 was issued in October 1896 and the Superintendent, therefore had ample time to dispose of the case. I have informed him that I consider his explanation unsatisfactory.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.
