Sir, With reference to your letter No. 1994 dated the 1st instant, I have the honour to state that Mr. Thorpe should not have been reemployed as paymaster on famine duty without the sanction of Government and that he is not entitled to the concession granted under article 577 (b) Civil Service Regulations to Police Pensioners who retired from service after having having contributed during the full term of their service to the Police superannuation fund. Pending such sanction, for which application should be made, his pension should be kept in abeyance.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue
(Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture.)

Dated 22nd May 1897.
No. 3648 Min

READ the following letter from the Collector of Kurnool, dated 19th May 1897, Reference on T. Current No. 212 of 1897

I have the honour to state Mr. P. B. Thorpe and S. Nanjundappa who are superannuated pensioners, were appointed as paymasters in connection with famine relief works in this district. The Treasury Deputy Collector objects to passing their pay bills, pending the sanction of Government for their reemployment on temporary duty duty under article 575 of the Civil Service Regulations. As these men were employed owing to paucity of hands, I request that the necessary sanction of Government may be obtained at an early date. A copy of the Accountant General's reply to a reference made in Mr. Thorpe's case is enclosed.

2. As it is extremely difficult to secure men for famine duty in this district, it becomes necessary at times to entertain pensioners as paymasters and kitchen superintendents as suggested in Board's Proceedings, No. 105 dated 6.2.97 and I suggest that the general sanction of Government may be sought for the appointment of this class of persons.

Resolution

Resolution.

Submitted to Government.
The Board has already brought to the notice of Government the paucity of hands available for employment on famine duty. The re-entertainment of pensioners would be a great help, and as a reference to Government in each individual case involves delay, the Board requests that the Collectors of affected districts may be granted general authority to employ pensioners on famine duty wherever competent men of that class can be had.

To

THE Secretary to Government,
Pension Department.

SIR,

With reference to your endorsement No. 29, dated the 9th of June 1897 referring to me for remarks Proceedings of Board of Revenue, Revenue Settlement &c. No. 3648, M.S., dated 22 May 1897, recommending that collectors of districts affected by famine may be granted a general authority to employ pensioners on famine duty without a reference to Government in each case, I have the honour to state as follows:-

2. Under Article 575 of the Civil Service Regulations a Superannuation pensioner is excluded from re-employment in the General service, while Article 576 prescribes prescribes that a Retiring pensioner should not be so re-employed except on strong public grounds and with the express sanction of the Government of India or of the Local Government as the case may be. In a case of re-employment of a pensioner belonging to either of these two classes therefore, Government alone is the best authority to decide whether the re-employment should be permitted or not.

3. Again article 579 clearly contemplates that the temporary re-employment of a pensioner with the benefit of retaining his pension during re-employment should invariably be subject to the sanction of Government, and it is with the object of emphasizing the importance of requiring such sanction in every case of temporary re-employment that the words "Local Government" are printed in italics in that Article. The Government cannot, therefore, in my opinion delegate that power to a lower authority as recommended by Board of Revenue without the definite orders of the Government of India.
