I feel myself very glad to record my high opinion as regards the ability & high good character of H. Vasudeva Bhattacharya, 5th Gumasta of this Court. He possesses some knowledge of English & Sanskrit too, he writes a good hand. He has also read to me the records of the Court. He has performed his duties as Substantive Clerk. I regret that no chance of promoting him presented itself. He was under me for 7 3/4 years.		24-8-62	Promoted.

Petitioner appears eminently qualified for the post of Clerkship in Bangalore District Court. He is well versed in addition to English with all the languages of the District including Kannada which is particularly so. He has many testimonials & was the holder of the position before the appointment when it became vacant last year. But unfortunately for Petitioner just at that time the Govt reported that Petitioner had been guilty of disobedience and neglect of duty & recommended his removal to another Court. I have carefully gone through the papers forming the record of Case No 1000 for some time past and find that there was no objection against him.		31.12.83	Reversion to the post of Clerkship.	X

Respected Sir,

I beg to submit here

Enclosure 1/11-1

2/11-1

The delay beyond a month in submitting the above application is, I beg to state, due to the following circumstances:-

(i) Soon after making over charge of his office, the applicant applied to the District Court for permission to withdraw his resignation, and final orders rejecting his said request were received only on the 15th Ultimo (vide District Court's Proceedings No. 1476/9.5.97).

(ii) Next, it was found necessary to call for certain information from the Kasargod and Puttur Munsifs' Courts in connection with the leave obtained by the applicant in 1873, 1881 and 1886, when he was serving in those Courts.

and Letters Nos 517 and 516 were accordingly sent to the said Courts on the 15th Ultimo.

Reply from last mentioned Court was however received only today, the delay being apparently due to the Court having been closed for the annual recess. In accordance with the information furnished by the Courts referred to above, certain corrections have now been made under my initials at pages 2, 4 and 6 of the Applicant's Service register. I have to observe that at pages 5 and 7 of the said Service register the signature of the Head of the office is wanting in respect of certain entries, but this omission which is apparently due to oversight seems to be not very material in inasmuch as the said entries appear to have been duly verified (vide the verification certificates in the said register).

4 During the last five years of his service the applicant was not absent from duty except on privilege leave, and so his average emoluments with reference to Article 531 of the Civil Service Regulations are equal to the pay which he was last drawing, viz Rs 40-0-0 per month.
Consequently it becomes unnecessary to append any separate memo of calculation in that respect.

I beg to remain,

Respected Sir,
