For Orders.

Please see the Insp. Genl's letter flagged A. and the Asst Genl's reply. Kaiser Singh entered the service on the 4th Decr. '76 as a peon on Rs 7 in the office of the Inspector General of Prisons. He held this post till the 14th Decr. 1880, when he was dismissed for overstaying his leave. He remained without employment for 4 mos & 17 days, and was then re-employment in the same office. His service since his re-employment amounted to 15 years & odd, for which, as pointed out by the A.G., he was not entitled to any retirement allowance under art.

392 C.S.R. The A.G., however, certified that, if the break caused by the applicant's dismissal in 1880 be condoned by Govt. under art. 465 of the C.S.R., he was eligible for a gratuity of Rs 60% for his total qualifying service of 19 years & 11 months and this amount was granted ^{to him} in Rs 425 Pension. The Insp. Genl. of Prisons now says that "the condonation of the break

Does the applicant no good for he had over 15 years' pensionable service without it, and asks that the deficiency of one month in the applicant's service to complete 20 years' service may be condoned and that he may be granted a gratuity of Rs 72/-.

The Insp. Genl is, it is submitted, wrong in stating that the condonation "does no good", for, if the break had not been condoned, the applicant would not have got any retiring allowance.

Orders are solicited as to whether in the circumstances, the condonation of the deficiency in the applicant's service now asked for, should be sanctioned.

MS
4.7.97. The I.G. of Prisons strongly recommends the grant of Rs Extra 12 Rs 7 Sps that the man was a deserving servant. Submitted that the one month deficiency may be condoned.

SIR,

With reference to your endorsement No 32 dated the 23rd of June 1897 referring to me for remarks letter No 1459 dated the 8th idem from the Inspector General of Prisons Madras, in which he recommends that the deficiency of one month in the total service of Kaiser Singh, late Duffadar of his office, may be condoned that he may be granted a gratuity equal to six months pay. I have the honour to report as follows:-

The applicant forfeited service amounting to about 4 years on account of his dismissal from the Public Service on the 15th December 1880 and his subsequent qualifying service which began on the 12th May 1881 and terminated on on the 31st March 1897, amounted to 15 years 10 months and 19 days, for which he was not entitled to any gratuity, owing to his claim to it being barred by Article 392 of the Civil Service Regulations. On the recommendation of the Inspector General of Prisons, however, the Government condoned the interruption in his service and granted him a gratuity of Rs 60 equal to 5 months pay for his whole service of 19 years and 11 months. Vide Government Order No 425 dated the 28th May 1897. The Inspector General now recommends that the deficiency of one month in the applicants service may be condoned so as to entitle him to a gratuity of six months pay for a service of not less than 20 years, and it is for Government to determine whether the recommendation should be acceded to or not. Should Government be pleased to accede to the recommendation under the powers vested in it by Article 465 A (1) the applicant may be granted a gratuity of Rs 72 equal to six months pay under Article 524 (a) (1) Civil Service Regulations in lieu of Rs 60 already granted to him in the Government Order quoted above.

The

The endorsement under reply and its enclosure are herewith returned.

SIR,

Enclosures

With reference to Pension G.O. No. 425 dated 28th May 1897, I have the honour to state that though the Government has been pleased to condone the break of 4 months and 27 days in Kesar Singh's service, the condonation does him no good for he had over 15 years' pensionable service without it, while with it he has only 19 years and 11 months and has thus been allowed 5 months gratuity. In these circumstances I would respectfully request that under article 465 A (1) of the C.S.R. the Government may be pleased to condone the deficiency of one month in Kesar Singh's service and to grant him a gratuity of Rs 72 or 6 months pay instead of one of Rs 60 or 5 months' pay. The deficiency of one month in 20 years is not large and the officer was a deserving servant.
