presented many petitions to Govt. the last of which was dated 11th June 1897. He was told that some of these petitions had been referred to the Board which however has not issued any orders to him. He prays for the payment to him of the gratuity which he has been applying for in his former petitions. He has charged interest on this amount at the rate of Rs 18 a day for every Rupee due to him. He prays that the amount with interest at this rate may be paid to him. He repeats his complaints against the local officers of all departments and prays that he may be authorized to superintend their work. He also prays that an Overseeer place or any other post may be conferred on him.
