the docket. I put in the word "necessary". with reference to para 2 of the A.G.'s letter wherein he states that Mr Shonhill would not gain anything by the alteration of the date applied for by him. It is very much regretted that I could not think of another short expression which would convey the meaning embodied in that para. By "necessary" ^{merely} meant "necessary" or "essential" ^{to} Mr Shonhill.

Proceedings of the Revenue Council.

Read the following endorsement of the Accountant General, in para. dated 28th July 1897 of letter No. 1.A.E./146 to the Superintendent of the Survey, dated 28th July 1897, No. 66/6, 1897, and letter from Mr. Shonhill dated 28th July 1897, that his retirement be with effect from 1st April 1897 instead of from the 1st April 1897.

Signified. The Government of India in its letter No. 501/514 dated the 17th July 1897, in Government Order No. 111/514, dated the 17th July 1897, directed the abolition of the two posts of Deputy Superintendents one of which was held by Mr. Shonhill and the 1st April 1897. His retirement cannot therefore be taken into effect from 1st April 1897.

Further it will be seen from this office report No. 111 dated 30th June 1897 on the pension application of Mr. Shonhill, that his pensionable service calculated up to 1st March 1897 amounts to 15 years 5 months and 13 days. If his request be granted he would not be eligible for pension longer than what is mentioned in the report above, as his pensionable service would still be less than 15 years. Mr. Shonhill is not eligible for this concession as he is not eligible for it. His total service is 15 years 5 months and 13 days.

Order thereon. 5758/21, 1/3052, 21st July 1897.

The Government are in agreement with the Accountant General. (The subject)
