READ The following application from —
B. Lakshminarayana Iyath No 6 — Kasichetty Street Black Town Madras — dated 16th July 1897.

I most humbly and respectfully beg to state that I have been employed in the Survey Department from 1874 to 1895, when I was discharged on reduction of establishment. I now get a pension of Rs 10 per month. While I was in service I was employed as a clerk, accountant, storekeeper, deputy surveyor, head clerk of a Pa file —

office and lastly as a clerk on Rs 40 in the Survey office Madras
I know Telugu, Tamil and English.
This is my hand writing. As I hear that hands are required
as paymasters and circle — Inspectors &c for famine relief works I humbly beg to request that I may be given a suitable employment.

For which act of charity
I shall as in duty bound ever pray.

Resolution

The applicant will be appointed as a paymaster or circle Inspector, if he reports himself to the collector of Ganjam forthwith.

2. The sanction of Government to his reemployment without loss of pension will be solicited under article

579 Civil Service Regulations.

READ the following petition from Abdul Goffer residing next to Munshi Muhammad Ali Sahib's house Barber's Street, Triplicane, Madras, dated 21st July 1894:-

I am given to understand that some Circle Inspectors and Paymasters are required for the affected districts of the Presidency.

I most respectfully beg to tender my services for one of them

I am a Government
Pensioner from the Revenue Survey Office, Madras where I was holding the post of Assistant Map Record
Keeper until my services were dispensed with by a reduction in the Revenue Survey Department.

I understand Tamil
Telugu and Hindustani languages in addition to my knowledge of English.

Should your honour
be good enough as to provide me with a post in any affected district I shall ever feel extremely thankful.

Resolution.

The applicant will be appointed a Circle Inspector or Paymaster, if he reports himself forthwith to the Collector of Cuddapah.

2. The Government will be requested to permit the applicant to draw pay in addition to his pension, under article 549 of the Civil Service Regulations.
