The case of Mr Taylor of Parlakimedi.

The Hon Mr Gore C.I.E.

[illegible] Gore 11-5-97

With reference to that portion of the Hon's note marked with blue pencil on the ~~next page but one~~ 1st note for orders it is submitted that under art 858 C.S.R the pension of an officer on foreign service is regulated by the rules which apply to officers of the Govt. Under Art 463 C.S.R therefore Mr Taylor is liable to forfeit his past service owing to his unauthorised ~~leave of~~ absence 1895. The course proposed by the Acct Genl, viz that this absence should be commuted into leave without allowances to the date of the medical certificate & into leave on med certificate thereafter on the Govt of India accepting the irregular medical certificate, seems only necessary in case Mr Taylor claims any allowance for such leave from Govt. But apparently he does not. The only question is, if Govt decide to give Mr Taylor a pension and the interruption in his service due to his unauthorised absence in 95 can be condoned? It is submitted that this may be done under Art 464 C.S.R.

Is Mr Taylor to be granted a pension? This is the point referred to by the H.M. in that part of his note marked with red chalk (B). The only precedent is found in G.O. 603 d 15th July 1896. Please see the order on page flagged A'. A.G. & the H.M. appear to have thought that the employment of a ~~native~~ Govt pensioner concerned the State alone.

~~It is submitted that if Mr Taylor has served his time for pension which (if Govt condones his unauthorised absence with leave without allces) he did on the 15 Jan 97 he is entitled to get it and that the question as to whether he should be allowed to continue in the service of Parlakimedi should be dealt with by the Political Department.~~

Before laying this down definitely it might be well to ask the Acct. Genl.

I think this is certain & needs no reference

Eg. Mr Thamboo Chetty quoted in letter to India re Kunhi Raman Nair

It seems plain from both Mr Thumboo Chetty's case & ~~[illegible]~~ from the Acct Genl's ruling in O that the sanction of the Govt of India is necessary in this matter.

6/8/97.

But please see G.O. No 14 to 15 d 10 Feb 1891 + and the previous papers + in the case of Mr Kunhi Raman Nair.

It is true that we don't know whether Mr Taylor seeks a pension from Parlakimedi. But the principle of the Govt of India's decision in the case of Kunhi Raman Nair seems to be that Govt should not except in special cases forego the pensionary contribution & pay a pension as long as the officer is able & willing or is permitted to work. It is therefore submitted that the question whether Mr Taylor should be granted a pension without prejudice to his present employment in Parlakimedi should be dealt with by the Political Department.

With ref. to H.M.'s note marked A. it is submitted that under Arts 831, 832 of the C.S.R. as revised Mr Taylor on being advised of the arrears by the Acct Genl should submit to Govt an application for Mr Taylor appears to be under a misapprehension as to his real position. He is still a Govt officer whose services have been merely lent to the Rajah of Parlakimedi. Under Art 806 (v) of the C.S.R. he is still subject to the general & disciplinary rules which apply to officers on active Govt service. In these circumstances the Govt consider that Mr Taylor references to the Acct Genl in his letter ~~[illegible]~~ ~~Vizagapatam~~ No 390 d 27 ~~June~~ May 97, were most improper & must call on Mr Taylor to apologise for that letter & to withdraw it.

2. The Acct Generals endt read above will be communicated to Mr Taylor who will ~~observe~~ note that his unauthorised ... 1895 renders him liable to forfeit all his previous service. The Govt however will be prepared to commute this unauthorised absence into leave without allowances under art 464 C.S.R.

3. With reference to G.O. No 114 Finl d/ 10 Feb 1891 & the ruling of the Govt of India quoted in para 3 of the Acct Genls endt, the question whether Mr Taylor should be granted a pension without prejudice to his present employment under the Raja of Parlakimedi will be dealt with in the Political Department.

4. The Acct General is requested to take the necessary steps under arts 831 & 832 of the C.S.R to recover the arrears of ~~pensionary~~ contribution due from Mr Taylor.

Please see the Acct Genls report flagged A. Mr Taylors case is there fully set forth. This note submits the points herein raised for orders.

Paras 2 & 4 of the A.G.s report.

As the Acct Genl points out Mr Taylor errs in supposing that the leave he took in 95 was a matter of private arrangement between him & the Rajah. He should have obtained Govt sanction. He could not have got this sanction to furlough for ~~[illegible]~~ he had taken leave in 1892. When this matter was first raised the A.G. reported that Mr Taylor's leave from May 95 to the date of his falling ill (in Sept) might be treated as leave without allowances but that the Govt of India might accept the irregular

The Hon Mr Grose C.I.E.

Mr Taylor should be told that a reference to Sec 838 of the C.S. Regs will convince him that his impolite references to the Acct. Gen. in his letter of the 2d June 97 were uncalled for & asked to apologize for the letter & withdraw it.

It is clear, too, that as he got no Leave from Govt in 1895, the 8 months during which he was absent from India these cannot be counted as service for pension, & he had no power to retire on the 30th June 1896 Flag B. He completed 30 years of pensionable service on the 15th Jan 1897. At any date after that, ~~he could retire~~ provided that his service prior to his absence in 1895 completed, he could retire from the service of Govt medical certificate & that if India did so then the remainder of his irregular leave might be held to be leave on med certificate. If Mr Taylor is willing to accede to this course India might be now asked to accept the certificate. Otherwise Mr Taylor is liable to forfeit his past service.

Para 3 (first part) of the A.G.s report

It is submitted that this is a merely technical difficulty. All Mr Taylor has to do is to resign the Rajah's service as a Govt servant and re-enter it again as a private individual. Apparently all that is required is that the Rajah should be informed that Mr Taylor is no longer a Govt Officer.

Para 3 second part But Mr Taylor up to the 30th June 96 (up to which date only he has paid pension contributions) has not put in sufficient + ~~provided~~ if he retired also from the Service of the Raja and paid his pensionary contribution up to date he could claim a pension.

As the contribution for the 30th June 1896 has not yet been remitted by him to the Acct. Genl., & he will have to remit it with interest at 4 pies a day per 100 Rupees, & as portion of it will not have been paid within 12 months of its accrual, the Acct. Genl. will have to report the matter to the G of I & take their orders as to whether the pensionary claim has lapsed.

The Acct. Gen. thinks that Mr Taylor, having failed to comply with the conditions of the Note to Sec 838 CSR is liable to forfeit his previous service. I do not understand the Note to mean that. Mr Taylor has had no leave & no leave allowances from Govt. He ought not to have gone away without getting leave from Govt, but he did, & under the circumstances I don't think he shd be punished for doing so. There is no leave to commute & there are no allowances to refund. I do not see, therefore, that there has been a failure "in conditions" which makes Mr Taylor liable to forfeit past services.

16/7/97

All this no doubt shd be communicated to Mr. Taylor.

D

It is noted that Mr Taylor could reenter the Raja's service as a private individual directly he retires from it as a Govt. Servant. I am not sure about this. The letter from India about Kunhi Raman Nair seems against it. Are there any precedents?

service to get any kind of pension.

Submitted therefore that Mr Taylor may be informed (1) that unless the irregular leave taken by him in 95 is retrospectively authorised he ~~will~~ forfeit all his past service (2) that such authorisation may be effected in the manner stated above if the Govt of India will now accept the irregular medical certificate (3) that he should submit that certificate now so that India may be addressed, (4) that if India accepts it his service to 30th June 96 will still fall short of the period required for a retiring pension & that he will have to pay pension contribution for the deficient period with interest, (5) that before any pension is ~~[illegible]~~ given him he must ~~resign his [illegible]~~ as a govt servant resign his post under the Rajah.

The point only remains & that is Mr Taylor's impertinent letter to the

Collector (Flag B)

The Acct Genl's suggestion in para 6 of his Endt (Flag A) may it is submitted be adopted & Mr Taylor may also be further ~~warned~~ told ~~that Govt may be compelled, if he continues in this strain, to mark its displeasure by withholding or reducing any pension to which he may ultimately become entitled~~ to apologise for the language of that letter as a condition of Govt taking the matter of his irregular leave into favorable consideration & making a ref to India

15.7.97

I do not think it will be necessary to make the condition to get him to apologise.

16/7/97

I submit that Govt. need address India on the whole case. Mr. Taylor has done good service ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ ~~service by~~ without ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~. If he understands what he has to do & if Govt. does its part by addressing India the matter may end without hurt to Mr. Taylor.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF THE AUDIT OFFICER (1).

Submitted to Government. The applicant commenced service in the Educational Department in June 1866 and continued to serve in it upto 1st January '73 when he was appointed Tutor +Flag D to the Minor Zemindar of Parlakimidi Estate. On the 1st July 1890, he was appointed Agent to the Zemindar and on a representation made by the Government of Madras +Flag E the Government of India in its letter No. 616 dated the 25th March 1891 Home Department, embodied in Government Order No. 267 Revenue dated the 6th April 1891 +Flag F ruled that the applicants salary as Agent should be Rs. 1500 a month and that Rs. 750 should be assumed as the pay he last drew in Government Service for the purpose of contribution for pension under Article 808 of the Civil Service Regulations. Accordingly Mr Taylor paid to Government contribution on account of his pension upto 30 June 1896, and afterwards put in his application for pension under the following circumstances.

2. Mr. Taylor was granted six months leave on Private affairs by the Zemindar of Parlakimidi from May 1895 but his claim to leave allowances from Government was disallowed on the ground that the leave was barred by Article 370 of the Regulations as he had furlough in 1892. While on leave in England Mr Taylor fell ill and the Zemindar commuted the Leave on Private affairs into Sick Leave for 8 months from May to December 1895. This office in its report No. IACB/12293 dated 25th August 1896 pointed out to Government that as Mr Taylor was granted leave on Private affairs irregularly from May 1895 he should be considered to have been on leave without allowances upto the date on which he became ill, and on leave on Medical Certificate thereafter provided he produced a proper Medical Certificate agreeably to Article 906 of the Regulations. Mr. Taylor produced a Medical Certificate and this office pointed out to Government that the certificate was incomplete and could not therefore be accepted without the sanction of the Government of India. On the report being communicated, Mr. Taylor did not submit his case to the Government of India nor did he produce a Medical Certificate in proper form, but ~~preferred~~ (?) his claim to a Retiring pension. + The papers in this matter are in file flagged G.

3. As it appears from paragraph 2 of his letter No. 399 Flag B dated 27 May 1897 that Mr Taylor has not resigned his appointment under the Rajah of Parlakimidi, his claim to a Retiring Pension cannot be entertained under the ruling of the Government of India Foreign in its letter No. 750 G dated 29 April '95 embodied in Government Order No. 319 dated 15th May '95. Flag H,

From the service history detailed on the 2d page of the application it will be seen that Mr. Taylor's pensionable Service calculated upto 30th June '96 amounts to only 29 years 4 months and 16 days and not to 30 years as erroneously supposed by him, and such being the case his claim to a retiring pension under 509 Civil Service Regulations is untenable. He is not entitled to an Invalid pension as he is

Sir,

In returning herewith your ADK/26 dated 4 ultimo, with enclosures, I have the honor to reply to the objections therein made, seriatum.

1 No service book ever having been maintained for Mr Taylor there was some delay in the verification of his service in the Educational Department vide letter No 3560 dated 31st March 1897 from the Director of Public Instruction which was received here on the 5th April last. Mr Taylor's application for pension in the prescribed form having been submitted to you on the 9th April last, there was no delay in this office. Information regarding Nos 19 + 30 has been called for and will be submitted shortly.

5 Mr. Taylor writes to say that the Rajah gave him 8 Months sick leave in 1895, that he received no leave allowance from Government though he paid the usual Contribution for the period. In fact, it seems that the leave taken by Mr Taylor was the result of a private arrangement made with the Rajah. A Copy of Mr Taylor's letter dealing with some of the Accountant General's objections is herewith sent for information.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No RC $\frac{974}{\text{acc}}$ dated 17th May 1897, I have the honor to give you the information asked for.

2 I have not resigned my appointment under the Rajah of Parlakimedi and I have no present intention of doing so. The Accountant General has no concern whatever with the question as to whether I continue to hold my present appointment or not.

3 In 1895 my employer gave me six months special leave on half pay, and I applied to Government for allowances for these six months; as I had been contributing to Government for leave allowances. The Accountant General then wrote me that I was not entitled to such leave under Government rules. While at home I fell ill and the Rajah prolonged my leave, as sick leave, to eight months. Then I applied to Government again for the allowances due to me for leave on sick certificate but the Madras Government referred me to the Government of India as it it (the Madras Government) could not sanction the allowance without a certificate from the Medical Committee under the India Council in England, which I did not possess. Instead of referring the matter to the Government of India, I sent in my claim for pension.

4. I have thus given particulars of my going to England in 1895, but with this the Accountant General has no more to do than "the man in the moon". I did not get Government allowances while I was home, so the period of my absence does not count as leave under Government rules. My Contribution to Government for pension was paid during the time I was away, and that is all the Accountant General has to look after.

5 I have no service book and never had one as I have frequently explained before.

6. The idea of the Rajah giving me a last pay certificate, before I have left his services, is curious and why asked for I cannot comprehend.

7 In conclusion I would only add that I have (under the Civil Service rules) served Government for more than 30 years and am therefore entitled to the pension I demand. The delay in granting me this pension is little short of scandalous; and I shall insist on a judicial rate of interest being paid me on the delayed pension. With this purpose in view, I send a copy of this letter to the Chief Secretary to Government.

Attention is drawn to Nos. 11, 19 and 30 of the revised printed Memo. of Instructions from this office.

2. From a letter addressed to the Collector on the 28 January '97 by Mr. Taylor it is inferred that he continues to hold the appointment of Agent to the Zemindar of Parlakimedi ~~which~~ while from an entry made opposite to No 7 on the 1st page of the application it would appear that he ceased to hold that appointment from the afternoon of the 30 June '96. Information is requested as to whether Mr. Taylor has actually retired from his appointment, as if not, he would not be qualified for a pension under the rules contained in the Civil Service Regulations. If his retirement was duly reported to Government and any orders passed upon it, a copy of the Government Order should be furnished.

3. The pay of the appointment as Tutor to the Minor Zemindar of Parlakimedi Estates which Mr Taylor held from 1 January '73 was progressive rising from Rs 350 to 500 by an annual increment of Rs 50 as reported in this Office letter No $\frac{IAE}{476}$, dated the 15th January '97, and not fixed as Rs 350 per mensem as shown on the 2d page of the application. The necessary corrections should be made.

4. Although Mr. Taylor was drawing a salary of Rs 1500, he contributed to Government on account of his pension only on the assumed pay of Rs 750 per mensem. It is only upon this pay that the amount of his pension should be calculated, and not upon Rs 1500 as has been done by you. The entry opposite to No 11 on the 1st page of the application should accordingly be revised.

5. From certain papers on record in this Office it appears that Mr. Taylor proceeded to Europe in May '95 on six months leave on Private affairs but that on this Office bringing to notice that the leave was inadmissible it was treated as one on Medical Certificate or without allowances under orders of Government. No reference to this fact is made in history of services given on the 2d page of application and the omission should now be supplied

6. Mr. Taylor's Last Pay Certificate and his Service book should be transmitted

3. Mr. Taylor's Case presents me the following three doubtful points which I submit for your Solution:—

(i). During the period extending from the 15th June 1866 to the 31st August 1868. he is stated to have been Acting Head Master of the Zillah School, Cuddapah. I doubt whether this period of his Service Counts for pension under Art. 403. of the Civil Service Regulations.

(ii). The next point relates to the furlough leave enjoyed by him in Europe from the 16th April 1892 to the 8th January 1893. I doubt whether he is entitled to leave out of India counting towards pension under art 445. ct as, I think, he did not belong to the Graded List of the Educational Department referred to in article. 330. relating to European Services.

(iii). The third point refers to the Sick leave actually enjoyed by him during 1895, though the period is not Known. It is also not Known whether this leave was Sanctioned by Government. In this Connection I beg to invite your attention to this office letter R.C. No. $\frac{252}{acc}$ of 96. dated 22d April 1896. But Mr. Taylor's letter herein enclosed states clearly that the only leave availed of by him during his entire Service is that referred to in para 3. (ii). Supra.

4. In the absence of both his Service book and any records in my office which will elucidate the subject I have been obliged to treat all the doubtful periods as qualifying for pension, agreeably to the tone of his letter.

5. Mr. Taylor hopes to obtain Retiring pension under art 509 of the Civil Service Regulations and if you concur in his view, his Case may be submitted to Government for necessary Sanction.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most obedient Servt.

Mr. Boyle in his letter No 493 of the 18th June last writes as follows:-

"I have learned from Mr. Taylor that he would be glad to leave the Cuddapah for the Cuddalore Zillah School. His health has not of late been so good as it used to be, and a relief from the trying climate of Cuddapah would be welcome to him after six years unbroken work here."

The above statement led the Director of Public Instruction to order the interchange of appointments between Mr. Perrett and Mr. Taylor; and it certainly appears to him to justify the assumption that the latter gentleman would be glad to go to Cuddalore. If, however, Mr. Taylor now objects to the move, even with travelling allowance granted, the Director will cancel his Proceedings No. 1785 of the 17th ultimo.

2. The Director feels it due to Mr. Taylor to say that the Head Master of Cuddapah Zillah School has devoted himself to his work in a very creditable manner, and he trusts to be able to raise Mr. Taylor's salary before long.

Sir

In reply to your letter No RC 974/acc dated 17th May 1897 I have the honor to give you the information asked for.

2 I have not resigned my appointment under the Rajah of Parlakimedi and I have no present intention of doing so. The Accountant General has no concern whatever with the question as to whether I continue to hold my present appointment or not.

3 In 1895 my employer gave me six months special leave on half pay and I applied to Government for allowances for these six months, as I had been contributing to Government for leave allowances. The Accountant General then wrote me that I was not entitled to such leave under Government rules. While at home, I fell ill and the Rajah prolonged my leave, as sick leave, to eight months. Then I applied to Government again for the allowances due to me for leave on sick certificate; but the Madras Government referred me to the Government of India as it (the Madras Government) could not sanction the allowance without a certificate from the Medical Committee under the India Council in England which I did not possess. Instead of referring the matter to the Government of India, I sent in my claim for pension.

4 I have thus given particulars of my going to England in 1895, but with this, the Accountant General has no more to do than "the man in the moon"; I did not get Government allowances while I was at home, so the period of my absence does not count as leave under Government rules. My contribution to Government for pension was paid during the time I was away, and that is all that the Accountant General has to look after.

5 I have no Service book and never had one, as I have frequently explained before.

6 The idea of the Rajah giving me a last pay certificate, before I have left his services, is curious, and why asked for I cannot comprehend.

7 In conclusion, I would only add that I have (under the civil Service rules) served Government for more than 30 years and am therefore entitled to the pension I demand. The delay in granting me this pension is little short of scandalous, and I shall insist on a judicial rate of interest being paid me on the delayed pension. With this purpose in view, I send a copy of this letter to the Chief Secretary to Government.

Furnishing certain information called for by the Accountant General in Connection with the pension Application of the Agent to the Rajah of Parlakimidi.

TRY. DY. COLLECTOR,
31 MAY. 97
GANJAM.

1. ~~Forwarded~~

2. Mr Taylor originally submitted his application for pension in October 1896. This was forwarded to Government with this office letter No 2210 [illegible] 1st Nov 1896 and in G.O. 1133 dd 23rd Nov 96 the application was returned for submission ~~was submitted~~ through the Accountant General.

3. It appears that Mr Taylor has never had any service book — hence there has been considerable delay and correspondence between this office & the Accountant General.

4. Copy of the Accountant General's letter complained of by Mr Taylor is herewith forwarded.

5. The pension application states that pension is applied for from 30th June 1896 up to which date it appears that pensionary contribution for was paid by the Parlakimidi State or Estate.

That Mr Taylor himself admits that he took leave in 1895 for 8 months to which he was not entitled under Govt rules, the leave being granted by his employer. The Accountant General I think rightly takes exception to the grant of his leave without Government sanction. He also objects to Mr Taylor's claim for pension from 30th June 1896 on the ground that he has not formally resigned his post from that date.

6. The delay appears to be really due to the fact that Mr Taylor has no service book and that certain formalities in connection with his taking leave &c. were not complied with by him. Mr Taylor's request contained in the last para of his letter is therefore unreasonable.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that the application for pension of Mr W Taylor Agent to the Zemindar of Parlakimidi is being delayed for want of the information noted in the Margin. Where possible your answer should be written underneath the several points to which your attention is drawn.

2. The enclosures and your reply should be returned with the least possible delay.

Attention is drawn to Nos 11, 19 and 30 of the revised printed Memo of Instructions from this Office.

2. From a letter addressed to the Collector on the 28th January 97 by Mr Taylor it is inferred that he continues to hold the appointment of Agent to the Zemindar of Parlakimidi while from an entry made opposite to No 7 on the 1st page of the application it would appear that he ceased to hold that appointment from the afternoon of the 30th June '96. Information is requested as to whether Mr Taylor has actually retired from his appointment, as if not, he would not be qualified for a pension under the rules contained in the Civil Service Regulations. If his retirement was duly reported to Government and any orders passed upon it, a copy of the Government Order should be furnished.

3. The pay of the Appointment as Tutor to the Minor Zemindar of Parlakimidi Estates which Mr Taylor held from 1st January '73 was progressive rising from Rs 350 to 500 by an annual increment of Rs 50 as reported in this Office letter No IAE/476, dated the 15th January '97, and not fixed as Rs 350 per mensem mensem as shewn on the 2d page of the application. The necessary corrections should be made.

4 Although Mr Taylor was drawing a salary of Rs 1500 he contributed to Government on account of his pension only on the assumed pay of Rs 750 per mensem. It is only upon this pay that the amount of his pension should be calculated, and not upon Rs 1500 as has been done by you. The entry opposite to No 11 on the 1st page of the application should accordingly be revised.

5. From certain papers on record in this office it appears that Mr. Taylor proceeded to Europe in May '95 on six months leave on private affairs but that on this office bringing to notice that the leave was inadmissible it was treated as one on medical certificate or without allowances under orders of Government. The reference to this fact is made in history of services given on the 2d page of application and the omission should ~~be~~ now be supplied.

6. Mr. Taylor's Last Pay Certificate and his service book should be transmitted.
