To,

His Excellency the Governor-in-Council.

Thro'

The Collector of Sea Customs,
Maoras.

The humble petition of C. Chocka-kinga Moodelliar, till lately a clerk in the Sea Custom House, Maoras.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That your Excellency's petitioner first entered the Government Service in 1860 as a clerk in the Inam Commission; when the Honorable George Noble Taylor was at its head and continued in it for 11 years, when owing to reduction of Establishment he was unfortunately thrown out and given a gratuity of Rs 175 for 7 years service, the remaining four years having

having been omitted from calculation on account of under-age and leave without allowances. That he was afterwards granted a gratuity of Rs 500 for the under-age period also — Vide G. O. 22-5-75 261 Pension

2. That Subsequently he entered the Chief Secretariat on Rs 250 in 1871, and after a service of 3½ years, he was, as it would have it, thrown out again in 1874 in the reduction of Establishment there and was allowed a gratuity of Rs 75 for 3 years'— service — Vide G. O. 11-3-75; No 134 That Your Excellency's petitioner then drew a total gratuity of Rs 300 for his 14 years' service in the Chancery Commission and the Chief Secretariat as he little expected that he would live and serve again (as the sequel would show) till

till he should complete the 55th year of his age; And as he had nothing to live upon during the period he was out of employ.

3. That he was then taken into Service again in 1875 as a clerk on Rs 15/- in the Sea Custom House, Madras, where he gradually rose to Rs 25/- And continued there till 26th September last; when on completing his 55 years he was declared unfit for further Service.

4. That, though Your Excellency's petitioner has thus put in a good Service of nearly 34 long years, only 18 of them now count for pension, amounting to the small sum of Rs 75, which it needs no saying, is quite insufficient for the maintenance of himself And his large family in these hard times; And that having served the benign Government during the vigorous under the rules. Your Excellency's petitioner is bold that his request is inadmissible under the rules, but he fervently prays that Your Excellency will see the way to take it to Consideration, the hardship so which, he will otherwise be subjected And to Comply with his humble request at least as a special exceptional case.

 Your Excellency's petitioner is also given to understand that though there is no case in which a pensioner has drawn gratuity no less than three times there are cases in which half pension has been granted to persons who had previously benefited themselves by gratuity.
 And for this Act of Charity & Kindness Your Excellency's petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

 Custom House, Madras.

Submitting for the orders of Government with remark a petition from b. Chocha-leiga Mudaliar, late clerk in the Sea Customs House, Madras, requesting that he may be granted a pension of one half of his last pay under the circumstances stated by him.

Order. 22nd January 1896 No. 64.

The petitioner's request is, ~~as stated~~ ~~by the Board~~, inadmissible; and his petition is accordingly rejected.

22. 1. 96

22/1/96

Note.

He gets Rs 7 1/2 +
To ~~the Govt.~~ wants Rs 12 1/2 but The Govt. does not propose to refund the gratuities of Rs 300 in amount given to him for the service prior to 1875. At 4% interest these would now amount to at least Rs 800 or 900 or Rs 500 for 15 years which he is not likely to live. He therefore cannot be expected to be paid the present gratuity of Rs 12 1/2. It is not likely that it will be advanced.
