3. Of 13 Stock Inspectors, 6 have already¹⁰

The Inspector General of the Civil Veterinary^{the} recommend the retention of the officers who⁷ have received notice in order that they may⁴ be placed in charge of Veterinary Dispensaries^{to} has been carefully reconsidered and the Govt.

inexpedient for financial reasons. it would be undesirable to place them in charge of Stock Inspectors who have been pronounced to be inferior for the post of senior Veterinary assistants; and whose inferiority might prejudice the success of an experiment in that direction. As the Inspector General and the Board are agreed that not more than 7 Inspectors are really required for the Bacteriological Survey and the other Veterinary work now requiring attention, it follows that there is no sufficient reason for the reinstatement in the public service of the 6 Inspectors whose services have been dispensed with; and the notice of discharge which they have received cannot therefore be withdrawn.

With reference to Board's Proceedings No. 3563 Misc, Requesting the Supt. C.V.D. to prepare and submit the usual pension appl. of a Stock Inspector if he is eligible therefor. pension roll of Stock Inspector M. Venkataramana Sastri with the following papers necessary to entitle him to the proposed pension.

1. Last Pay Certificate.
2. A Statement of his average Emoluments
3. His Service Register
4. A copy of the G.O. confirming the notice of discharge.
5. A copy of the G.O. authorising the omission of his probationary period in calculating the qualifying service.

Resolution.

The pension application of M. Venkataramana Sastri,

Stock

Stock Inspector, received with the letter read above will be returned to the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department for revision with reference to the following remarks:—

1. Applicant is stated to have been under suspension on two occasions viz. from 10th December 1885 to 23rd December 1885 and from 20th May, 1886 to 19th June 1886. Under No. 43 of the printed Memo of instructions of Accountant General Communicated with Board Proceedings 217 Pces dated 5th January 1897, a statement showing the circumstances under which he was suspended must be appended to his pension application. With regard to the latter period of suspension, it is further observed from remarks entered in Col. 8 of the Service Register, that the applicant was not to have any promotion for six months.

As this will ordinarily be understood to mean that he was not to have any promotion for six months from the date of the expiry of the suspension, his promotion on 4th December 1886 is within the prohibited period and should be explained.

2. In Col. 8 of the Service Register the entry of "af. dy" has been scored out but not initialed and the signature of the head of office in Col. 9 of the Service Register against the entries 12.2.89, 7.9.89, and 8.9.89 is wanting. Again both in the Service Register and in the pension application, the remark "under suspension" must be entered against the entries 'from 10.12.85 to 23.12.85 and from 20.5.86 to 17.6.86'. These omissions must be supplied

3. In calculating the periods reckoned as service, the following discrepancies are observed:—

Period from 24.12.85 } is 2 months + 14 days and not 2 months + 16 days. to 9.3.86 }

— do — from 21.6.93 } is 1 year 8 months and 14 days and to 6.3.95 } not 1 year 8 months and 16 days.

— do — 8.6.95 } is 1 year 7 months 25 days and not to 1.2.97 } 1 year 7 months 24 days.

These discrepancies should be explained, rectified.

Order. No. 3891. Revenue. dated 29 September 1896.

The Government observes that in paragraph 13 of Board's Proceedings dated 16 November 1895, No. 369 disposed of in the first order read above, the Board of Revenue expressed doubts as to whether some of the Stock Inspectors now employed in the Civil Veterinary Department would ever be fitted for appointment as Inspecting Veterinary Officers, while from paragraph 12 of the Board's Proceedings

Proceedings dated 27th July 1896, at p. 176 reviewed in the Second Order read alone, it appears that the Superintendent can only place confidence in three or four of the Block Inspectors under his Control. In these circumstances and in view of the fact that the annual report goes to show that annual of these officers turn out a quantity of work which is incommensurate with their pay, the Government Consider that the Board should no longer delay giving the usual three months' notice of discharge to those among them

then who are unfit for employment as Voluntary-Inspecting officers and cannot be suitably provided for otherwise.
It is observed that special reports regarding the abilities of each Block Inspector have already been called for by the Board.

the following letter from the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary

August 1897:-

Forwarded with

Re P. No. 8910 M. 29-7-97.

In reference to the question raised in Accountant-General's letter No.
A.D.N. dated 24th July 1897, as to whether pay was allowed to the applicant M. Venkataramana Sastri during the period of his transit from 4th to 15th June 1890, I beg to state that no deduction was made in his pay for that that month. As regards the 2nd paragraph it is stated in enclosure no 7 that the date of desertion from duty was 20th May 1886 and there is no evidence available to show the day on which he returned to his duty. A true copy of the Government order referred to in paragraph 3 is herewith inclosed.

Resolution

The Superintendent's letter with its enclosure will be forwarded to the Accountant-General with reference to his letter 12 of 17th dated 24th July 1877.

2 According to the entry on the 3rd page of the application that the applicant was suspended for one month from 20th May to 19th June 1886 for leaving his district without permission and disobedience of orders, the Accountant-General wants information regarding the date from, and up to which, the applicant was absent from duty without leave. The Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department states that the date of desertion from duty was 20th May 1886 but that information regarding the date of return to duty is not available. The Board considers that the period of absence
