CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF THE AUDIT OFFICER (1).

Submitted to Government. The applicant began service as 2^d class Constable in the Krishna Police Force on the 8th July 1869, and gradually rose to the position of 1st grade. Had Constable on a salary of Rs 25 a month. On the 23rd September 1895 he was awarded one black mark and reduced to the post of 2^d grade. He's Constable on a salary of Rs 20 a month. He held that appointment for one month and 8 days, i.e. up to 1. November 1895 when he voluntarily retired.

Under Article 555 of the Civil Service Regulations the pension admissible to a Police officer, whose pay at date of discharge or resignation exceeds Rs 20, should be determined by the rules which apply to ordinary service while the pension of an officer whose pay does not exceed that sum should be determined under the Police Superannuation Fund rules. Had the applicant remained as 1st Grade Head Constable on a Salary of Rs 25, he would not have been eligible for optional retirement as his pensionable service did not amount to 30 years, nor could he have reckoned towards pension the period of his absence on leave without pay from 17 May to 31 July 1879. By his degradation however he becomes entitled to claim optional retirement after 24 years service under the Police Superannuation Fund rules. Under these rules the applicant can in my opinion be granted a pension of only Rs 10-- a month instead of Rs 12-13-- (i.e. one half of his average salary for the last 3 years) as proposed by the Inspector General of Police in his letter No 714 dated 14-12-95 enclosed. Should Government be pleased to accept this view, his whole qualifying service will amount to 26 years, 3 months & 23 days, and will render him eligible as already stated for a retiring pension not exceeding Rs 10-- a month. Subject to such reduction as Government may see fit to make owing to his character and past conduct, which from the remarks I deem to have been entirely satisfactory.

Noted opposite to No 2 on the 3^d page of the application does not seem so have been
The case appears to be analogous to that of Narayana Swami Nayadw, the grant of whose pension formed the subject of the correspondence ending with this office letter No. 144^p dated 20 August 1901. No. 144^p is Minute on reduction of grade to Const. Sheikh Ibrahim No 624.

The Collector of the District in his inspection notes, dated 6th January 1887, records that a dead body had that morning been found in the main canal at Beywade near the Ryos bridge and that a panchayat was sitting (as he arrived) assisted by Head Constable Sheikh Ibrahim that although there was a Hospital within $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile of the spot the body was not sent for post mortem examination; that the panchayat-dars and Head Constable made nothing more than a most carelessly superficial examination and suggesting that they just turned the body over to see that there were no wounds pressed the stomach to see if it contained water and then instantly made up their minds that the death was natural and not from drowning or any violence that when the village Munsiff & Station House Officer were taxed with carelessness in leaving the body exposed in the sun they declared it had only just been taken out of the water that when Head Constable was taxed afterwards with not having made a more careful enquiry he stoutly answered that his examination of the body had been prolonged and profound and that the body had been lying out the back for $\frac{1}{4}$ of an hour that although the body had probably not been more than 5 or 10 minutes out of the water the panchayat-dars and Head Constable quietly sitting down to report that the death was one from Cholera that the body had been thrown into the water.

The Collector considered that Station House Officer had been guilty of grave misconduct and suspended the village Munsiff for a month.

The Acting Superintendent forwarded the Collector's notes with his departmental report remarking that it seemed a mistake to have any divided responsibility about a request on a body; that on raising the question on once before as to who was the responsible person that the inquest was properly held he was referred to the latter part of section 174 of the C.P.C.; that our present orders are that bodies were not to be sent for post-mortem examination unless foul play was suspected and that in this instance the Head Constable had no reason to disagree with the verdict of the jury. On this the Deputy Inspector General remarked that he cannot see any harm in divided responsibility and that if there was any suspicion of foul play, Station House Officer is responsible that the body is sent in. He further remarks "This was clearly a case (hospital being so close) in which the body should have been forwarded immediately to the Medical Officer for post-mortem examination. I agree that the Head Constable has been guilty of grave misconduct. An example should be made of him. If above 4 grade Head Constable will be reduced to that grade. If 4 grade will be reduced to Constable"

The remarks of the Inspector General of Police is "Right - this was a very gross case" under the rules has not been granted as the Applicant's conduct & character have not been thoroughly satisfactory.
 He 624, 1st grade is consequently reduced to 4 grade Constable.

3. The Govt. agrees with the P. of Police in considering that the maximum pension admissible is Rs 12-13-0 p.m. & not Rs 10/- as the A.S. contends. Reference has however been made to the Govt. of India in a precisely analogous case, & should that authority agree with the A.S., it will be necessary to reduce the pension now granted to Rs 10/-.

Rs 10/- p.m.

Ev. 1222 Pension 19.10.95

Please see the Accts: Govt's report. The A.S. says that the applicant's case is analogous to that of Narayanasami Naidu disposed of by G.O. 12.7.95, 943 & 1223. In that case it was held that the A.S. view was untenable, & at his request the case was ref'd to the Govt. of India for orders; & India's decision has not yet been received.

21.1.96.

By voluntarily retiring now, the applicant gets a better pension than he would be eligible for if he served on longer. He probably is aware that he is not likely to get promotion again & so naturally takes the earliest opportunity of retiring in order to prevent his pension from dwindling down to Rs 10/-.

Submitted that in these circumstances & in view of his unsatisfactory service, he should only get Rs 10/-.

Please see para 3 of the Draft.

22.1.96

He has over 26 years service & if he holds him & he continues now to Rs 12-13-0 I submit that a reduction to Rs 10 is too great - His character is "fair" - ~~For order as to the amount to be paid - Lt 23/1.~~

I think that under all the circumstances the pension should be reduced to Rs 12/-.
