To

The Secretary to the Govt: of India
Finance and Commerce Dept.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No:4197 d/20th Sept. '97,requesting to be informed of the circumstances under which a delay of 12 years occurred in sanctioning a gratuity to Raju Singari Naidu therein referred to,I am directed to submit the following facts for the information of the Govt: of India.

2. Singari Naidu entered the Govt: service on the 5th Dec: 1872 as a wood-watcher on Rs.15/- in the Jungle Conservancy Establishment of the Forest Dept, Nellore Dt., and remained in that establishment till the 30th Sept: 1884,when his services were dispensed with owing to the re-organization of the establishment. On the 1st Oct: 1884 he obtained a temporary appointment on Rs.10/- in the same Dept. This temporary appointment ceased on the 27th June 1885 and subsequently he was not offered any substantive appointment in the Forest Dept.

No

No application was either submitted on his behalf for any retiring allowance until upwards of 11 years after the date on which he was thrown out of employ, and the man himself seems to have ^{taken no action} remained quiet under the impression that he was not entitled to any retiring allowance. Recently Singari Naidu, having discovered that service in the Jungle Conservancy Establishment qualified for pension, made his application, and in Dec: 1896, the usual pension application on his behalf having been received by this Govt:, he was granted a compensation gratuity of Rs. 165/- for his qualifying superior service of 11 years and odd ending with 30th Sept: 1884.

3. I am to add that in sanctioning this gratuity, this Govt: ^{viewed} with displeasure the delay in the submission of ^{which had occurred} Singari Naidu's application for gratuity, and ^{that} a copy of the Process of the Government ^{I have etc.,} was forwarded for the information of the Govt. of India in the Prov. & Agric. Dept, with this Govt's Enclt no. 13 dt 24th Feb 1897.
