Proceedings of the Madras Government.

Read the following letter from the Offg: Accountant-General, Madras, No. 2905 dated the 20th September 1897:—

I have the honour to inquire whether acting allowances only should be passed to persons acting for officers deputed on famine duty. Under the note to article 110 of the Civil Service Regulations Sub-pro-tem allowances are admissible in all cases in which the deputation or temporary appointment is for six months or more. But, as during the famine of 1877 Government ruled (Vide Government Order No. 3177, d. 31st October 1877) that "acting allowances only are admissible in the case of substitutes for officers deputed on famine duty", I have thought it advisable to inquire whether it is the intention of Government that the same rule should be enforced during the present famine.

I beg that early orders may be passed on the question, as I am receiving claims for Sub-pro-tem allowances from Substitutes for officers on famine duty.

Order thereon, No. 5170, Iris dated the 2nd October 1897

The Government directs that the ruling made in 1877 be followed also on the present occasion.
