Sir

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your Re No 1095 dated 14.12.96 and to point out that Ranger Stafford's leave expired on the 27th November, since which date he has been treated as having retired, the Board's Order only reached the District Forest Officer on the 16th instant, it is therefore impossible to put Mr Stafford on to general duty now as the holidays have commenced. If, as ordered by the Board, he is to be retired from the 31st December I beg to enquire how the period between 27th November and 31st December is to be treated. The simplest course is to retire him from 27th November as has already been done.

SIR,

With reference to your ADK/29 dated 7th instant returning the application for pension of Mr. H. Stafford for certain information I have the honour to reply as follows:—

(1) The application was prepared and submitted from the Forest Branch of my Office without any delay but as it had to pass through me and the Conservator as head of the department some delay was unavoidable.

(2) The Collector of Cuddapah has been requested to send a copy of G.O. No. 202 of 1870 as you direct

(3). Mr. Stafford was not required to rejoin his ~~duty~~ appointment after the expiry of e one year's leave on the understanding that he would be made to retire from 28th November 96 under the 55 years rule; but the Board's Order that he should be retired from the 31st December 96 having been received on the 16th December 96 and it being impossible to put him on general duty before the Commencement of the Christmas holidays, he was considered to have been on duty and paid full pay from 28th November to 31st December 96. Hence the period was treated as qualifying Service. Copies of Conservator's C. No 4 tour Board's Proceedings F. No1582 Mis, this Office letter No 644 dated 22d December 96 and the Conservator's letter Dis No413 dated 29th December 96 are enclosed for perusal in this Connection

4. The old record from which the Service of Mr. H Stafford was verified is enclosed

(5) The Superintendent of Police Cuddapah District has been requested to send copies of Correspondence relating to Mr. Stafford's dismissal and they will be forwarded on receipt

(6) (a) The annual returns referred to Submitted by the District Forest Officers Godav and Bellary; it is requested that they may be aske to explain the discrepancy

(b) The sum of Rs 130 and Rs 125 shown in the annual returns from 1877 to 79 and 1880 respectively includes pay Rs 100 + Rs 30 and 25 fixed Conveyance allowance. The latter amounts seem to have been inadvertently included in the annual returns.

(c) Mr. Stafford's promotion to Rs 150 having been made in June with retrospective effect from 1st April 82 the annual return for the year 1882 did not show Rs 150 as his pay.

(7) The alteration has been made and attested.

No 4206 7 October 1892.

From, E. D. M. Hooper Esquire,
Conservator of Fts N.C.

To The Collector Kurnool,

Sir, I have the honor to request that you will inform Ranger Stafford serving in your district that his explanation of the charges made against him & for general bad work in Bellary, ~~and~~ under successive District Forest Officers has been duly considered not only by the Conservator but by the Board of Revenue by whom it is declared that no appeal against Mr Gamble's order of degradation will be now entertained; further that Mr Stafford's claim to rise above the rank of Ranger must depend on his future conduct and the recommendation of his Collector and Conservator adding that he

he certainly has not shown himself qualified for any higher position at present.

It now remains for me to deal with the direct charges of bad work in Bellary. He seems to have considered himself under but little obligation to do more than draw his pay for the twelve months following upon his transfer from Sondur Range, for he appears to have done but little work considering that he is an experienced Ranger of the 1st grade. He appears to have adopted this course to show his objection to the degradation which had been inflicted upon him, the truth of this being evident from his explanation bearing complete reference to his previous supposed wrongs. In fact such as it is his letter of explanation amounts almost to an acknowledgment that he is unable to do his work because of the effect upon his mind of the orders degrading him. If this be his real meaning it becomes a matter for consideration whether he can usefully be employed any longer in Government service in a responsible position.

The Conservator chiefly in the man's personal interest transferred him to Kurnool in order that he might serve under an officer with whom he had previously worked in sympathy, but it would appear from recent events as well as from Mr Lishington's opinion that Ranger Stafford has done no good work in the Kurnool District as yet.

The preceding remarks have been specially recorded in order that the Ranger may learn once for all what his real position is in the service and see ~~that~~ if he persists in the line of conduct he has adopted since he left Godaveri he will have only himself to thank for removal from service, a step, which, however, regrettable, especially in the case of a man who has done and can still do the state, ~~the~~ good service, is what must naturally follow when he chooses to do nothing. He has now been told by the Land Revenue Commissioners that his future depends upon himself and with this encouragement the Conservator is hopeful that Ranger Stafford will by his work, recover the good opinion of his departmental superiors and to avoid discouragement in the adoption of such a course the Conservator will overlook the particular instances of failure, the subject of this enquiry and in consideration of the apology he has submitted to the District Forest Officer Bellary, he will be permitted to draw pay and allowances of his rank which were withheld during the period he was under suspension, the order for which is hereby cancelled.

Proceedings of the acting Conservator of Forests Northern Circle dated 16 July 1892.

After considering a letter addressed to the District Forest Officer Bellary by Ranger Mr Stafford serving under the District Forest officer Kurnool, a copy of the letter in question having been furnished by the Collector Kurnool, the acting Conservator called for the previous correspondence leading up to it and is decidedly of opinion that the Ranger in addressing the District Forest officer Bellary in the way he has done has been guilty of insubordination and impertinence to the District Forest Officer which cannot be tolerated especially as he was guilty of similar offence on a previous occasion.

SUBJECT.

Returning, with replies to his queries, the pension application papers of Ranger H. Stafford.

Forest Department, Madras.

Conservator's office, Northern Circle

Office Note.

Misconduct of Sub Assistant Conservator Mr Stafford.

This is the second case against this officer since the beginning of the year 1889.

The charges are:-

(1) That he delayed for 3½ months the carrying out of the order of the District Forest officer of bringing before the Magistrate certain cases of cutting & removal of timber of unauthorized sizes.

(2) That he omitted to collect the diffrence of revenue on such timber in the case of one Basaviah Naidu.

(3) That after receipt of orders from the District Forest officer to prosecute, he allowed timber of unauthorized sizes to be removed.

(4) That he allowed Bonda Venkataswamy & Grandhi Kermmaiah timber merchants to remove 1st. class logs under 4 ft in girth, without report to the District Forest officer.

(5) That he omitted to exercise proper supervision over the Gomashta Forester MacCally.

The history of the cases is fully recorded in the District Forest officer's note & it is hardly necessary

3
C. No. 795

go over it in full detail here but I propose to review the matter shortly.

2) Under the Godavari River Rules, trees are divided into:-

I Reserved trees:- only to be cut on special permits from the Range officer and in special localities.

II Class I trees - only trees above 4 ft in girth to be cut.

Class II trees. Trees of any girth may be cut, those under 2 ft being classed as 'poles'.

Class III trees. the same.

3) In January - February 1889, the District Forest officer was on tour of inspection in the Upper Taluks and noticed instances in which the rules had not been adhered to.

I 1st class trees under 4 ft had been cut.
II 2nd — over 2 — do — classed as poles.
III , 1st — had been cut as poles under permits for 2nd class.
IV 1st — logs had been cut under permit for 2nd class.

4) The District Forest officer sent for the Sub Assistant Conservator who replied that he had not come across any such breaches of the rules.

5) The District Forest officer then issued to him the following instructions:-

i in the case of I, the difference between the rate at the cubic contents of the measured log & that of one of 4 ft should be collected.

ii in the case of II, all poles over 2 ft to be charged for per cubic ft.

iii in the case of III, first class poles to be confiscated.

IV. in the case of IV. the logs to be measured & charged for at Sanctioned rates

6:- It is best here to note where I consider Mr Battie's orders were wrong. He had no authority to make a new rule such as i & ought to have carried out Rule 7 of the River rules which is "Should it be found that the boats or rafts brought to the revenue station contain wood or forest produce of a size or description prohibited in the schedule of rates, such timber or produce will be confiscated in addition to any other punishment for breach of these rules that may be imposed" instead. If it was advisable to make such an arrangement as i, I think I am right in my opinion that it could only be done under sec 55 as a case of 'compounding forest offences' but this is not said. In the other orders he acted rightly enough.

7) The District Forest officer further ordered, presumably under Rule 7. and Rule 12 the prosecution of the merchants who were trying to pass timber of unauthorized dimensions.

8) Towards the end of May i,e 3 months later, finding that his orders were not being carried out, Mr Battie proceeded again to the Upper Taluks and on the 1st June reported in his diary as follows:—

"In February during my inspection up here, I came across cases in which merchants had brought out 1st class logs under 4 ft in girth also poles over 2 ft in girth. I ordered the Sub Assistant Conservator to prosecute the merchants concerned and when collecting the seigniorage, to collect the full amount on all undersized logs. He has disobeyed my orders in every instance. He delayed their prosecution so long that I have had to come up here & do the work myself. The timber concerned in these cases should have been attached pending the disposal of these cases but he has in every case allowed the merchants merchants to remove all and in the case of one merchant, the full seigniorage has not been collected. On these points, the Sub Assistant Conservator cannot give any satisfactory explanation. Mr Stafford's conduct is most suspicious. I cannot get any information or assistance from him. In the first case, he was called as a witness on behalf of the prosecution. His conduct was so extraordinary that the magistrate had to ask him whether he appeared to defend the accused or to give evidence for the prosecution. Mr Stafford's removal from the Sub Division is absolutely necessary. I have suspended him for gross neglect of duty."

9) Mr Stafford was then called upon for his answer to the charges enumerated in para 1 & his reply has been received. We are unfortunately only too well accustomed to cases against Mr Stafford and to the unsatisfactory but plausible defence he so well knows how to make: but the following is an abstract of that defence:-

10) Charge 1. The delay. The defence (Mr Stafford's para 2) is that he had other work to do, first, demarcation, then, he was ill, then the Special Asst Agent was away on tour & so on. But he was actually once sent for by the Special Assistant Agent and asked when the cases were coming up & in short, his defence really amounts to a series of excuses, it being highly probable that he had no intention of ever instituting the prosecution at all.

11) Charge 2. I think the District Forest officer should have sent with the papers, the list referred to, as sent by the Ranger to the Sub Asst Conservator & on which he

he is said to have written "all the numbers marked × are under 4 ft in girth"; for, that document would prove at once that Mr Stafford's defence was an un-truth. He states that (1) "the total number of cubic feet" exceeding the average, he thought it was all right and (2) that the list did not give length & girth but only cubic contents.

12) I am, as I have before remarked, of opinion that Mr Battie should not have ordered the procedure he did, but it was the business of the Sub Assistant Conservator to obey orders, and after the District Forest officer had pointed out that mal-practices existed, he ought to have scrutinized all the lists most carefully & insisted on not only checking the lists but frequently examining the books in the collecting station office. I cannot but conclude therefore, that Mr Stafford did not do his duty, and take due notice of the attempt to pass undersized I class timber.

13) Charge 3. The defence is that in his orders the District Forest officer did not expressly state that the wood was to be retained, pending prosecution. This is all very well, but a District Forest officer cannot mention in his orders every such little point and the necessity for the detention of the wood, while prosecution is going on, is obvious from Rule 5 which expressly forbids any timber being removed until full payment has been made, and Rule 7 which expressly adds confiscation to any penalty which the Courts may inflict. At the same time, it must be admitted that there is a good deal to be said for Mr Stafford's plea that of order about collection of the excess up to t merchants to remove all and in the case of one of 4 ft girth logs was tantamount to compounding the offence though not so described and that there is considerable doubt whether he could legally do both, collect excess revenue & detain the timber. In this charge, I think, we must give Mr Stafford the benefit of the doubt. Mr Beattie issued an order which was not in accordance with the law, at the very time when the law provided amply for the case, and Mr Stafford is hardly to be blamed if he relied on the orders of his superior officer and neglected the law.

14) Charge 4. This is a specific charge & there is practically no defence, only excuses of heavy work. &c &c: At the same time, there is something to be said in extenuation, that, although Mr Stafford especially after the District Forest Officer's orders & warnings of February, ought to have been on the sharp look out, yet that primarily it was the toll station & Forester Mr MacCally & the Ranger who were responsible for reporting breaches of the rules. Of the specific cases, we have no information.

15) Charge 5. There is no doubt but that Mr MacCally is an idle and good-for-nothing officer and a case about him is under consideration. Mr Stafford evidently knew this & it is all the more his fault that he did not look after Mr MacCally & inspect his office as frequently as possible. Mr Stafford was, it seems, between January & May never west- the Sabari and consequently never more than 3 days march from Wadagudem. Besides, during most of the time he was demarcating ~~He could~~ Metapali block, and that is close by. He Could easily, if he had chosen, have inspected the toll office once a week and in my opinion, he ought to have done so.

16) Order.

The last case against Mr Stafford was decided on the 25th January and he was then fined one month's pay and had his Travelling allowance withheld. I then recorded that I believed he was trying to obtain a transfer to another District and I am still more of the same opinion now. It is clear that he is doing no better and that he is unfit for the Sub Divisional charge of the Upper Taluqs which will possibly be better managed by Range officers, direct under the District Forest officer, provided the latter arranges to visit them as often as possible & at least, once a quarter. It is abundantly clear that, in spite of the District Forest officer having strongly and urgently drawn his attention to malpractices in the Sub Division, he took no measures to put a stop to them or to exercise stricter supervision over the toll office. And his conduct in respect to the prosecutions is, to say the least of it, very suspicious. I do not see ~~any~~ my way to gratify Mr Stafford by transferring him to an easier & a less unhealthy charge. If I do that, it will be as a reward for good rather than a punishment for bad conduct. I am bound to admit that Mr Stafford is entitled to the full advantage which Mr Beattie's [illegible] letter &c 7 gives him and that, in the case of charges 2, 3 4 & 5, there is not much to be said except that Mr Stafford was very remiss in his duties. Charge 1, however, is quite clearly proved, ~~that~~ and in that case, there is doubt but that the Sub Assistant Conservator was deliberately evading the order of his superior officer.

17). In the present case, ~~ruly~~ my order is that Mr Stafford will be reduced to the class of Ranger, his name being placed at the bottom of the 1st grade for one year, or until his good conduct is such that the Collector advises his reinstatement. If he does not improve within the year, it will have to be considered whether he should not be permanently reduced. For the time of suspension, he will draw merely the subsistence allowance permitted by the Civil Service Regulations, and he should be told that he is mistaken in the objection made by him to his suspension by the District Forest Officer, for, under para 30 (d) of the Forest Department Code, the District Forest Officer has full power to suspend a Sub-Asst Conservator ~~sub~~ subject to enquiry & report to the Conservator which have duly been made. The Conservator thinks that two serious cases against an officer like Mr Stafford within 6 months is a very bad thing, and trusts that this will be the last and that he will turn over a new leaf & do his work straightforwardly & properly, in future.

of insolence is founded.

3 Conservator's telegram of January 2, 1889 see in margin.

4 Collector's No 1040 of January 15 with enclosures leaving whole correspondence as well as Mr Stafford's explanation.

"reference your letters 921 & Battie's 922, if you approve please suspend Stafford for 2nd Months for leaving charge without sanction. Kindly send whole correspondence especially Battie's letter to Stafford also Stafford's explanation required by Code."

4) I have now gone over these papers & find the history of the case to be as follows:—

On October 17, a Hospital Assistant at Kumavaram gave Mr Stafford a certificate that he required a months leave for change of climate. Mr Stafford did not, however acting upon this, apply for leave as he should have done, but waited till November 2nd (16 days) when he handed over his cash in hand & books to the Forest Ranger of Rekapalli Mr Payne & left his station & proceeded to Cocanada. Arrived at Cocanada, he wrote on the 8th November to the District Forest officer saying that he had obtained a preliminary certificate (this is the one of October 17) and wanted a letter to the Civil Surgeon to get a proper one towards asking for privilege leave. He appears to have obtained this permission & got a medical certificate no 1 of November 20, signed by Dr Staunton, Civil Surgeon, which he submitted with his letter B of November 22nd following that letter by another (D of November 29) asking for 3 months privilege leave. In another communication, of the same date Mr Stafford explained that he had not handed over charge to the Ranger & with reference to an order of the District Forest officer (No 866 of November 27) that he could not conveniently return to Wadagudem for the purpose. Mr Battie then wrote (No 883 of 1st December) to the Civil Surgeon & enquired whether there was any difficulty in Mr Stafford's returning to his Sub Division so as to give over charge, and saying that, in case he should think it necessary to reexamine him, he had been directed to present himself for the purpose. Copy of this was sent to Mr Stafford whereupon he wrote his letter 1 of December 5th. Of this letter, all that can be said is that it is insolent and of a character that cannot be tolerated at all. There can be ~~so~~ no excuses for such writing as this, nor was there the slightest provocation in the letter to which it is a reply. The Civil Surgeon, strangely enough, so soon after his certificate, reported that there was no objection medically, to Mr Stafford's returning to Wudagudem. Mr Stafford then wrote (Letter L of December 10) that he was much better & was going back at once, assuming that he was on leave, which he had no right whatever to do.

5) The case was then reported to the Conservator by the District Forest Officer who explained that during Mr Stafford's absence "he, celebrated his son's wedding & accompanied him to Bimlipatam". The District Forest officer requested that some notice be taken of Mr Stafford's grossly impertinent letter but strangely enough, sent on the certificate and recommended the leave. The Conservator telegraphed on the 2nd January to suspend Mr

Mr Stafford and call for papers. The Collector, however, did not suspend him, but sent him back to duty. I cannot say I agree in this procedure. Mr Stafford ought to have been suspended till the case was decided.

6) Defence. Mr Stafford's explanation is an un-satisfactory but plausible document. He cannot surely expect us to believe that he was unaware that leaving his charge without permission was against rules. Though he had had the certificate on which he lays so much stress for no less ~~th~~ time than 16 days he never took the trouble to apply for leave. And he states that once before he left his charge without permission and was not punished. There are further excuses which do somewhat tend to shew that there have been too many obstacles in the way of leave being granted and that discipline is rather lax in Godavari, but it is noticeable against this that the District Forest officer never refused to send on the leave application & indeed that the Collector and District Forest officer throughout treated Mr Stafford very leniently indeed.

7) The only real defence that I can find is that discipline was so lax that Mr Stafford thought he could do as he pleased.

8) Decision. I think that no sufficient case has been made out by Mr Stafford & I do not believe believe that illness was the cause of his leaving his charge. I believe that the real facts are that he wished to be in Cocanada for private reasons and thought that an old medical certificate which he had not used would give him sufficient grounds for leaving his work without previous permission. And I believe that his impertinence was purposely done in order to procure a transfer to another District. That transfer may possibly be advisable and has certainly been recommended by Mr Battie before this case occurred. In regard to the absence without leave, my order is that Mr Stafford be fined one month's pay and that all his travelling allowance be withheld for the time during which he was absent from his Sub-Division, that is from the 2nd November to the date on which he reported his return to Wudagudem. Mr Stafford must be told that he is now held to be fully aware that he cannot leave his charge without previous permission and that, if he requires leave a medical certificate is not always necessary if such leave is due to him. I think that to officers like Mr Stafford serving in unhealthy charges, opportunities for leave should be given by the District Forest officer by so arranging that the Government work suffers as little as possible by their absence. A Sub-Divisional or Range officer ought to be able to get a month's leave yearly without difficulty; leave for 3 months is more serious serious, because then a substitute has to be sent perhaps from far, and in such cases applications for leave ought to be submitted at least two months beforehand. In regard to the case of the impertinent letter, Mr Stafford must submit at once a full and humble apology to the District Forest Officer such as the Collector approves. If this is not done, there will be no alternative but for me to consider the necessity for recommending Mr Stafford's further punishment; for the writing of letters of that description cannot be tolerated for a moment.

Please see the page immediately before the one flagged B. It seems clear that the applicant was prosecuted & convicted of extortion. No details are however given in the papers.
