Before the Court of the District Munsif of Srivilliputur.

Statement given by Sundaram Pillai, late process server of the above Court.

I was first appointed as batta peon on the 3rd October 1867 in the District Munsif's Court, Srivilliputur. Then on 6th March 1871, I was promoted from that post to the Amin's place in the very same Court and was since doing my duty as an Amin till 15th June 1873. On 16th June 1873 I was mokooped owing to the reduction of batta. Again on 1st January 1874 I got the Amin's place on Rs 12 a month per mensem. The details of the remaining portion of my service will be known from the records of this Court. From 3rd October 1867 to 15th June 1873 i.e. to the time I was first of all mookoofed I was paid from the batta income. At that time there was no salary system. The salary system came to force on the 16th August 1873.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. $\frac{\text{A.D.K.}}{142}$ dated the 10th Instant, I have the honour to State as follows:-

2. The descrepancy referred to in Point 2 of your letter is a clerical error which has been Corrected.

3. With reference to Point 3, the Gratuity was first recommended under the general article 524 of the Civil Service Regulations. The reentertainment of the Process-Server after his 40th year in 1890 and the Special provisions of the article 392 were not brought to my knowledge by some oversight and thus escaped my notice. The meaning of the Proviso to the article 392 does not however seem to be free from doubt. The Proviso itself seems to govern only cases where the person who is over 40 years is first entertained in service or where he is reentertained in service after a prior severance of his connection with services under circumstances which did not entitle him to gratuity or pension at the time of such severance; the note to the article makes the Proviso inapplicable to cases where an inferior servant is reemployed after discharge on compensation allowance or gratuity. It would seem that if the explanation is not applicable to the above case there is all the more good reason for its non-application where the inferior servant is reemployed after discharge under circumstances which entitled him to compensation pension or gratuity but which was not paid to him. 5 Even assuming that the note to the article 392 suggests the nonapplication of the Proviso to the cases of persons once discharged without compensation pension or gratuity because they were not entitled to such compensation pension or gratuity on the ground of their misconduct or of the want of sufficient service to entitle them to such consideration, it seems to me that it cannot be considered as disqualifying the service of the inferior servants reemployed after discharge without payment of compensation pension or gratuity to which they had a claim at the time of such discharge. In the case in question it will be seen that the Process Server had 10 years 9 months and 2 days of Superior Service prior to discharge and was therefore entitled at the time of discharge to a more liberal gratuity than what his Service subsequent to his entertainment entitles him to, supposing such service to be qualified. He was not apparently recommended for gratuity at the time of his discharge because of his desire to be taken back in Service when there arose a vacancy and of the probability of his being taken back. In this state of things it is a matter for consideration whether his Services prior to his discharge also may not be added to his Service subsequent to his re-employment for the purpose of the Calculation of his gratuity. I have not however done so as the note is not clear, but have still recommended the grant of gratuity to the Process Server for the subsequent Service in the belief that the Special provisions under article 392 may not apply to his Case.

4. As to Point 4. The applicant's discharge from Service in 1885 was owing to the reduction of establishment and to nothing else.

5. As to Point 5. The applicant's Service from January 1874 is verified from the Acquittance Rolls of this office. His Services prior to the above period is verified from the applicant's evidence only and there are no records here to support it. Besides there is no contemporaneous evidence available.

6. With regard to Point 6. The gratuity was not claimed for the Service which terminated in 1885 as there was a break of 4 years 7 months and 9 days between his former and latter services.

7. An amended application giving his former Service &c is herein enclosed.

Attention is drawn to No. 24 of the printed Memo. of Instructions from this office.

2. In the annual Returns for 90 and 91 the date of the applicant's appointment is shewn as 1-4-89 and 23-3-90 respectively while these dates do not appear on the 2d page of the application. The discrepancy should be explained.

3. The circumstances under which the applicant is recommended for a gratuity while his claim to it seems to be barred by article 392 of the Civil service Regulations should be explained.

4. From the entries in the remarks column on the 2d page of the application it appears that the ~~appoint~~ applicant was once discharged from the service in 1885. The reason for for the discharge viz whether owing to reduction of establishment or owing to the applicant's misconduct or inefficiency should be stated.

5. The applicant's service as Amin on Rs12 (Vide pencil entry on the 2nd page of the service book) can be verified from the audit Registers and annual Returns on record in this office from 75 to 85. If the same cannot be verified from the records of the local offices, the procedure laid down in Article 989 of the Civil service Regulations may be followed. In this case the whole of the applicant's service (earlier and subsequent) from the very beginning should be entered in detail on the 2nd page of the application and necessary additions made on the 1st page also.

6. Should it appear that no gratuity was claimed for the applicant's service which terminated in 1885, the omission should be explained.

there has been no delay.

2. There was no correction to be made in the 2nd page of the application for gratuity as the discrepancy asked to be explained in the 2nd para of the Accountant General's letter is shown to exist only in the Annual Returns for 1890 and 1891 with regard to the date of the applicant's appointment and not in the application which gives the correct date.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

No ADJ./286 / 17th Sepr. 1897 /

With reference to the Acctt. Genl's. certificate & report marginally noted, it is observed that the applicant was thrown out of employ on reduction of establishment on the 31st July 1885, and that he was then entitled to a compensation pension of Rs 2/. p. m. for his qualifying superior service of 10 years & odd. On the 10th March 1890, he however, obtained reemployment in the inferior service and was invalided on the 31st March 1897. Under article 483, C.S.R. the applicant seems entitled to a pension of Rs 2/. p.m. plus the gratuity of Rs 19-8-0 for his inferior service of 7 years & odd, and not to the reduced pension of Rs 1-14-5 p.m and the gratuity noted above. The Acctt. Genl. is requested to report if this view is correct, and if so, to modify his report accordingly.

To
THE Secretary to Government,
Pension Department.

SIR,

With reference to your Memorandum No 52 dated the 5 of October 1897, I have the honour to state, that under the rules in force in 1885, the applicant would only have been granted a gratuity of Rs 120-.. for his superior service of 10 years. At present, however, his case comes under Article 436 of the Civil Service Regulations, under which he becomes entitled to a pension and a gratuity, the aggregate value of both being more than what he would have received in 1885. There seems therefore to be no violation of the rule contained in Article 483 of the civil civil Service Regulations. In the circumstances no modification appears to be necessary in my report, which together with the papers received with your Memorandum under reply is herewith returned.
